Our Mission is to make active disciples of Jesus Christ by creating a welcoming community rich in spirituality and by moving people to embrace their God-given talents in the service of others and the care of creation.

October 17, 2021

Welcome!

To visitors to our Parish, to those who have recently moved into the area and to those comfortable and nourished here—Welcome To All. And, regardless of your status in the Church, your marital state, your ethnicity, your prior religious experience, your personal history, background or sexual orientation, please know that you are accepted and respected at Saint Mary–Saint Catherine of Siena Parish. Please introduce yourself to the priest and register as a member of our Parish.

About Us

Saint Mary - Saint Catherine of Siena is an intentionally inclusive Roman Catholic Parish that welcomes all those who make up our diverse community in a way that reflects God's love. Nourished by the Gospel and the real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist, we build a vibrant Parish that strengthens our faith and elevates our worship. With gratitude for the gifts God has bestowed upon us, we respond to His call to stewardship and embrace our lives of service and compassion.

For Whatever You Want

Throughout my years of ministry, in places near and far, always I come to a place of amazement when persons in trouble, grieving, in need, and broken in spirit find consolation in hearing the 23rd Psalm. For thousands of years this has been true, even to this very time. The imagery is antiquated, the meaning ever-new.

The great Jewish King David, author of many of the Psalms and the author of Psalm 23, was once a shepherd boy. In this Psalm, he places the image of the shepherd at the center of his prayer and casts God in the role of Shepherd: "The Lord is my Shepherd." The opening line is so familiar that when I quoted it at Sunday Masses, the congregation quickly recited the subsequent line using the most popular translation: "There is nothing I shall want."

The Psalm continues on with the image of each of us as a sheep and God as our Shepherd. David, in a most profound and simple way, outlines a simple yet complete set of circumstances that address our human journey and needs. Our physical needs are well cared for: "green pastures and still waters." Our very beings are refreshed and restored, and our direction in the journey made right: "He restores my soul. He guides me along right paths."

Even in dangerous times, we are freed from fear because of the presence of the watchful, able Shepherd: "Though I walk in the valley of darkness, I fear no evil, for You are with me." Accompanied by The Shepherd, the journey holds amazing promise of blessings and even reconciliation with foes: "You set a table – perhaps even for my enemies to join me and my cup overflows."

David concludes this prayer with an absolute profession in his belief in God's loving care for him – and for us as we pray, "Indeed goodness and mercy surround me all the days of my life – and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever." The simplicity of Psalm 23 almost obscures how very sublime it is. The prayer speaks to the depths of the human heart.

While the popularity of the Psalm is widespread, it seems that the actual appropriation of the Psalm is very limited. By that I mean so many of us are fraught with the challenges of everyday life and have a sense of the heaviness of living. The worries and the stress, the long hours of work and planning, the saving and earning, the struggle to be healthy and finally to find happiness are part of the life of us all. Some of the younger members of the community feel this more intensely than others, for no one is exempt from the challenges of life.

So how can it be that we profess, "The Lord is my Shepherd, there is nothing I shall want", but are not able to hold on to this reality in the midst of our struggles? Where is the disconnect?

It seems our faith and our prayers are put aside when we step into the reality of our lives. And yet it is precisely there in the come-day go-day movement of our lives that our faith is most needed. If, in those difficult moments, we embrace and internalize the actual meaning of the psalm, then we will truly feel and comprehend what it means to have the Lord as my Shepherd and to want for nothing. And we will understand why Psalm 23 has been loved and prayed for so many centuries.

Fr. Ronan

Our Stewardship Prayer by the Welcoming Committee

Heavenly Father, instill in our hearts a spirit of love and compassion. May we foster a welcoming parish community with acceptance and respect for all. Inspire us to make a difference by being generous with our time and talents. Please send your Holy Spirit among us to remind us to follow Jesus and his teachings in all aspects of our lives. As we end this Mass, may we go forth and spread goodwill among our neighbors, friends, and fellow parishioners. Through Christ, our Lord. Amen

Mientras suben a Jerusalén, Jesús va anunciando a sus discípulos el destino doloroso que le espera en la capital. Los discípulos no le entienden. Andan disputando entre ellos por los primeros puestos. Santiago y Juan, discípulos de primera hora, se acercan a él para pedirle directamente sentarse un día "el uno a tu derecha y el otro a tu izquierda". A Jesús se le ve desalentado: "No sabéis lo que pedís". Nadie en el grupo parece entender que seguirlo de cerca colaborando en su proyecto, siempre será un camino no de poder y grandezas, sino de sacrificio y cruz.

Mientras tanto, al enterarse del atrevimiento de Santiago y Juan, los otros diez se indignan. El grupo está más agitado que nunca. La ambición los está dividiendo. Jesús los reúne a todos para dejar claro su pensamiento. Antes que nada, les expone lo que sucede en los pueblos del Imperio romano. Todos conocen los abusos de Antipas y las familias herodianas en Galilea. Jesús lo resume así: Los que son reconocidos como jefes utilizan su poder para "tiranizar" a los pueblos, y los grandes no hacen sino "oprimir" a sus súbditos. Jesús no puede ser más tajante: "Vosotros, nada de eso".

No quiere ver entre los suyos nada parecido: "El que quiera ser grande entre vosotros que sea vuestro servidor, y el que quiera ser primero entre vosotros que sea esclavo de todos". En su comunidad no habrá lugar para el poder que oprime, solo para el servicio que ayuda. Jesús no quiere jefes sentados a su derecha e izquierda, sino servidores como él, que dan su vida por los demás. Jesús deja las cosas claras. Su Iglesia no se construye desde la imposición de los de arriba, sino desde el servicio de los que se colocan abajo. No cabe en ella jerarquía alguna en clave de honor o dominación. Tampoco métodos y estrategias de poder. Es el servicio el que construye la Iglesia de Jesús.

Jesús da tanta importancia a lo que está diciendo que se pone a sí mismo como ejemplo, pues no ha venido al mundo para exigir que le sirvan, sino "para servir y dar su vida en rescate por todos". Jesús no enseña a nadie a triunfar en la Iglesia, sino a servir al proyecto del reino de Dios desviviéndonos por los más débiles y necesitados. La enseñanza de Jesús no es solo para los dirigentes. Desde tareas y responsabilidades diferentes, hemos de comprometernos todos a vivir con más entrega al servicio de su proyecto. No necesitamos en la Iglesia imitadores de Santiago y Juan, sino seguidores fieles de Jesús. Los que quieran ser importantes, que se pongan a trabajar y colaborar.

"But it shall not be so among you. Rather, whoever wishes to be great among you shall be your servant;

whoever wishes to be first among you shall be your slave." Matt 20:26 - 27

Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time - October 16/17, 2021

In today's Gospel Jesus teaches his disciples that whoever wishes to be great among them must be a servant, just as he came to be a servant. Good stewards know that their "greatness" is found in God, and is affirmed by a serving heart, a Spirit-filled life, a humble walk and a commitment to acting in ways that glorify God. The "greatness" we feel about ourselves is rooted in a proper view of God in our lives and a proper view of our place in creation. It is from here that we derive our sense of identity and our belief that human life is particularly valuable. Not to be a servant of the Gospel and others would be poor stewardship. In what ways do we serve the Gospel in our daily lives?

WOMEN'S FAITH-SHARING GROUP

The women's group meets every other Wednesday, at 6:30pm via Zoom. The next gathering will be on Wednesday, October 20th. The group welcomes new participants. It's a wonderful opportunity to nurture your soul and make new friends. Please call Sr. Nancy if you want to learn more.

A STEWARDSHIP PRAYER for October

My Lord Jesus,

As the rains hide the stars,

as the autumn mist hides the hills,

as the clouds veil the blue

of the skies,

so the dark happenings of the world

hide the shining of your face from me.

Yet, if I may hold

your hand in the darkness,

it is enough, since I know that,

as the steward of your grace,

though I may stumble

on this journey of mine,

you will not let me fall. Amen.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY 10.24.2021

Next week's second collection supports Catholic World Missions. By Baptism, all Catholics are called to participate in the mission of the Church and share their faith as missionaries. World Mission Sunday gathers support for the pastoral and evangelization programs and needs of more than 1,150 mission dioceses in Africa, Asia, the Pacific Islands, and remote regions of Latin America. The funds gathered on World Mission Sunday are distributed in the pope's name by the Society for the Propagation of the Faith—a Pontifical Mission Society. Please visit www.propfaithboston.org for more information

Ministry to the Sick & Homebound

We welcome the opportunity to provide the Sacraments of Confession, Communion, or Anointing of the Sick to anyone who is confined to home, either on a short or longer term basis, as we want to do our best to help them feel connected to our community. Please call us at 617-242-4664 if you, a relative or neighbor is open to having a home visit for some friendly conversation and prayer.

Celebrating the Sacrament of Baptism is always a joyful event in our Parish. It's such a privilege to facilitate this momentous event in the lives of families and in particular, the life of the child. To learn more, please contact Sr. Nancy at:
