Roman Catholic Parish

Charlestown, Massachusetts ▪ Archdiocese of Boston

stmarystcatherine.org

Our Mission is to make active disciples of Jesus Christ by creating a welcoming community rich in spirituality and by moving people to embrace their God-given talents in the service of others and the care of creation.

November 21, 2021

Welcome!

To visitors to our Parish, to those who have recently moved into the area and to those comfortable and nourished here—Welcome To All. And, regardless of your status in the Church, your marital state, your ethnicity, your prior religious experience, your personal history, background or sexual orientation, please know that you are accepted and respected at Saint Mary–Saint Catherine of Siena Parish. Please introduce yourself to the priest and register as a member of our Parish.

About Us

Saint Mary - Saint Catherine of Siena is an intentionally inclusive Roman Catholic Parish that welcomes all those who make up our diverse community in a way that reflects God's love. Nourished by the Gospel and the real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist, we build a vibrant Parish that strengthens our faith and elevates our worship. With gratitude for the gifts God has bestowed upon us, we respond to His call to stewardship and embrace our lives of service and compassion.

GRACIAS!

Thankful.

Some years ago, the popular spiritual writer, Henri Nouwen, took a leave from his position at Yale Divinity School and went to Peru for a year. Nouwen worked and lived among the poor in the outskirts of Lima. Upon his return, he wrote a best selling book entitled, GRACIAS. He titled the book "Thank You" because he found the sentiment of gratitude so prevalent among the poor that he was both astonished and edified. Fr. Nouwen witnessed the poverty and sufferings of the Peruvian people while at the same time seeing their sense of gratitude for everything.

The word "gracias" permeated not only their life style but also their view of life and God. Often the "gracias" was spoken as "Gracias a Dios". The simplest act was completed with a prayer of thanks to God. Fr. Nouwen laid bare the irony that those who have little are often very grateful, while those who have much more, are often less grateful. Naturally one would think the reverse would be true. In fact, the irony is often carried even to the extremes: sometimes those who have abundance want more and feel entitled to more, and those with very little are grateful.

This week, we North Americans celebrate one of the most cherished of our national holidays, Thanksgiving. Surely, we are a blessed people. And it has been my experience that most Americans embrace this holiday with a deeply sincere sense of gratitude. Our gratitude is felt at many levels: to family, loved ones, our nation and most importantly, to God. All of us agree that the day is very important. Like you, I recall memories of childhood celebrations that I cherish - memories of families coming together and, at a table laden with abundance, pausing in a formal and beautiful way to thank God for all blessings.

Our reality is that the day comes and goes and the busyness of life can so distract us that our sense of gratitude can become dulled. We can fall into the trap of forgetting and not acknowledging God's blessings in our life. The worries and challenges can draw us away from the truth that we are first and foremost God's most precious children and blessed beyond measure. When I re-capture this truth, suddenly everything is reordered. I see things in a new light, priorities are re-established and my sense of the rightness of seeing God as the giver of so much is both freeing and humbling.

This Thursday we will gather with our loved ones. Even in the midst of the worries and challenges of these times, we know we have so much for which to be grateful. Unlike last year when Covid restricted us in so many ways, I will spend this beautiful day with family on the south shore. This year, in the light of the pandemic and the enormous human suffering worldwide, we will bring to the dinner table our gratitude for all we have and urgent prayers for harmony and hope in this divided and struggling world.

Fr. Ronan

Thanksgiving Day Prayer

*Creator of the Universe,
Giver of every good gift, we pause
on this Thanksgiving Day to express our gratitude for Your constant love and care for us, and for
Your continued graces and blessings.*

We thank you for the countless ways in which you nurture our lives, guiding us, comforting us, challenging us, strengthening us, as we walk our path of life on earth and seek to deepen our faith in You.

We thank You for the gift of Your Son, Jesus, for His teachings and example who, with the many people You place in our lives, show us how to be Your faithful disciples.

*We thank you for the gift of our family, friends and faith community, those in heaven and those on earth, and for the many ways they fill our hearts.
Today and every day, Loving God, may we, with every heartbeat and in every circumstance, cultivate a spirit of gratitude to You. And may we ever be Your trustworthy stewards on earth. We ask this through Christ, Our Lord.*

Amen.

Terminamos el año litúrgico con la fiesta de Cristo Rey. Un título hermoso para el Señor que es buen pastor, el mejor maestro, nuestro sumo sacerdote y el último profeta. En esta última celebración del calendario litúrgico le saludamos y celebramos como nuestro Rey.

Los reyes de la tierra son pasajeros. Su poder se mide por los ejércitos que tienen y su reino es efímero. Son seres mortales como nosotros. El presidente de USA dura cuatro u ocho años y es poderoso porque tiene un arsenal de bombas para matar y millones de dólares para comprar y sobornar al que quiera.

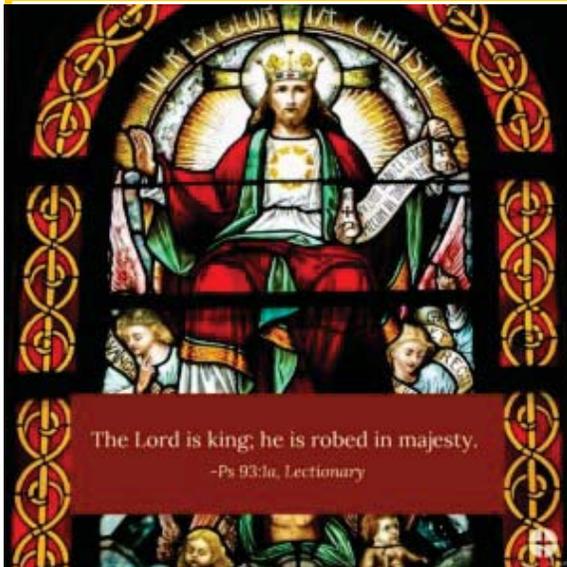

Jesús nos dice en el evangelio de hoy : "Mi reino no es de acá", mi reino no es como los de acá. Pero yo quiero reinar también acá, en los corazones de los hombres y mujeres que son de la verdad y que escuchan mi voz.

Feligreses del Pilar, estamos aquí reunidos para darnos un buste. Estamos aquí con las baterías descargadas y viejas. No hay energía y el coche no arranca. Sí, hermanos, el Señor, nuestro rey, nos da un buste para que lo podamos proclamar como Señor y decirle: Tuyo es el reino, tuyo el poder y la gloria por siempre.

En los tiempos de la persecución del presidente Calles de Méjico, en 1926-29, los cristianos morían gritando: Viva Cristo Rey y la virgen de Guadalupe. Así reconocían a Cristo como el último y único rey de sus vidas.

A Jesucristo lo podemos llamar de mil maneras, lo de menos son los títulos, lo importante es el trabajo, la misión que Él realizó entre nosotros. Pilato le preguntó: "Tu nación te ha entregado a mí. ¿Qué has hecho? Y Jesús le contestó: "Ser testigo de la verdad". ¿Qué has hecho? Vivir para los demás. ¿Qué has hecho? Anunciar el reino de Dios. Anunciar un nuevo orden de cosas, una nueva manera de relacionarse con Dios y con los hermanos. ¿Qué has hecho? Enseñar a amar de una manera nueva, sin egoísmo pero con pasión, sin pedir nada a cambio, dándolo todo y a todos los que nadie ama. ¿Qué has hecho? Ser testigo de la verdad y la verdad es que Dios es amor. Y el buste que todos necesitamos es el del amor de Dios. Sólo él ama de verdad.

Jesús, el rey de la gloria, de la verdad y del amor, hoy, nos pregunta también a nosotros: ¿Qué has hecho? ¿A quién eliges en tu vida? ¿Estás satisfecho con tus mentiras o eliges la verdad? ¿Qué quieres, tener más cosas o ser más persona? ¿Qué buscas, tener más poder o ser más servicial? ¿Ser súbdito del presidente o ser súbdito del Señor? Nuestro rey es humilde y pobre; no tiene ejércitos, ni bombas, ni fronteras, ni policías, ni aduanas, ni cárceles. Es un reino abierto a todos los que hacen el bien y un rey que ama a todos con pasión.

The Lord is king, he is robed in majesty.
-Ps 93:1a, Lectionary

November 21 ~ Solemnity of our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

Pilate said to Jesus, "Are you the King of the Jews?" On this last Sunday of the liturgical year, a question worth asking ourselves today is, "Is Jesus my King?" Is Jesus the center of my life? What can I do to remain close to Jesus with him at the center of all that I am and all that I do? These practices will keep you centered on Christ: Take time every day for prayer. Make it a practice to go to regular confession. Receive Christ, the Bread of Life, in Holy Communion at every Mass. Reach out to others through some charitable action. Begin this new year with more than resolve, begin it by taking these action steps!

Worldwide Marriage Encounter / Encuentro Matrimonial Mundial

To support married couples during this time of social distancing, Worldwide Marriage Encounter is sponsoring virtual marriage experiences. Some are on weekends and are seven sessions on weekdays from 7:00pm to 9:30pm. Couples will explore their individual personality styles, improve listening and communication skills, understand God's plan for their marriage, and learn how to keep their relationship a priority. Registration is limited and a $100 application fee is required. For more information or to apply, call at or visit them at <https://wwmema.org/>.

"Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice." Listen to Jesus on the next Worldwide Marriage Encounter Experience.

A MASS CELEBRATING THE INITIATION OF THE SYNODAL WAY

THE CATHEDRAL OF THE HOLY CROSS
BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS

Saturday, November 27, 2021
4:30 pm

Cardinal Seán O'Malley, OFM Cap. will celebrate this special Advent Mass at the Cathedral of the Holy Cross at 4:30PM - it will be broadcast and live-streamed on CatholicTV & CatholicTVLIVE.com (rebroadcast on Sunday at 11am and 8pm)

The theme is "For a synodal Church: communion, participation and mission."

The consultative process in the Archdiocese will begin in early 2022 and will explore such themes as: Companions on the Journey; Listening; Celebration; Sharing Responsibility for Our Common Mission; Dialogue in Church and Society; Ecumenism; Authority and Participation; Discerning and Deciding; and Forming Ourselves in Synodality. The insights gathered from Catholics and others in this Archdiocese will be combined with those from other dioceses and be used to guide an international discussion

The Synod will conclude with a General Assembly at the Vatican in October, 2023

Forming Ourselves in Synodality.

The liturgical season of Advent, begins this year on November 28,

which marks the time of spiritual preparation for the coming of Jesus anew at Christmas. It is also the beginning of a new liturgical year.

Advent begins on the Sunday closest to the Feast of St. Andrew the Apostle (Nov. 30). It spans four Sundays and four weeks of preparation, although the last week of Advent is usually truncated because of when Christmas falls.

The liturgical vestments are usually purple, and an Advent wreath is displayed prominently in the sanctuary of the Church. The circle of the Advent wreath represents that God is so great that God never had a beginning and will never have an end, and reminds us of the eternity of God's love for us and for all humanity. The four candles of the Advent wreath, three purple and one pink (joy) represent the hope, peace, joy and love that God sends through His Son, Jesus.

Let us take time this Advent season to slow down and spend some additional time in prayer as we reflect on the presence of Jesus in our lives and the meaning of His coming.

Parish Mass on Thanksgiving Day

"Give thanks to the Lord, for God is good; God's love endures forever." (Psalm 107)

Please join us for Morning Mass on Thanksgiving Day, November 25, at 9AM in St. Mary Church.

At the conclusion of Mass, as is our tradition, we will distribute blessed bread and a Prayer of Thanksgiving for you to share at your Thanksgiving meal.

We look forward to welcoming you!

The office will be closed on Thanksgiving Day, November 25 as well as on Friday, November 26.

The daily Mass will be at 9:00 am on both days and we encourage you to attend if you are able.

Since the office is closed on Friday the 26th, Adoration from 3:00 to 5:00 pm will not take place this week.

Should you have an emergency and need someone in the pastoral staff, please call and the answering service will contact the pastoral staff for you.

We wish you all a very blessed Thanksgiving.

Harvest on Vine

While Thanksgiving is certainly a wonderful time to take note of the blessings we have received, it can be a time of stress for many others.

It gives those fortunate enough to do so, the opportunity to offer our support for the good of others.

Every year during Thanksgiving we collect food for our Parish food pantry, Harvest on Vine. This emergency food pantry serves over 300 Charlestown families each month. At Thanksgiving, numbers increase to close to 600.

For a donation of $35, you can provide a Thanksgiving meal to a family in need.

Harvest on Vine offers a variety of items each distribution. The items greatest in need are:

Rice (1-3 lbs. bags)
Low-sugar cereals
Pasta
Macaroni and Cheese

Thank you for supporting those in need.

There are Christmas Flower envelopes in the back of the Church for those who would like to make a donation in memory of a loved one. The flowers are placed on the Altar for Christmas. Be sure to include the name of your loved one on the envelope. Names submitted by Friday, December 17 will be included in the bulletin for Christmas. All names received after that date will be added to a future bulletin. You may drop the envelope in the collection basket or mail to the Parish Center at 46 Winthrop Street.

Thank you.

Dear Marian Friends,

On Saturdays, we gather for our Saturday

Rosary via Zoom. Sign on is at 8AM, and we will begin praying at 8:15AM.

If you are interested, please email Donna at: donna.lecam@gmail.com for the Zoom information.
All are most welcome.

The Season of Advent is fast approaching. We thought we would offer this book as a possible read for you in preparation for the Advent. And, anyone who wishes, can join us for a virtual discussion of the book via Zoom on Thursday evening, December 2nd at 6:30. The book is available for purchase at Amazon or Barnes and Noble.

We used this book as an introduction for our RCIA candidates and received such wonderful feedback that we thought we would offer this opportunity to our parishioners. Here is a brief description that is listed on the back cover of the book:

Throughout A Friendship Like No Other, renowned spiritual director William A. Barry, SJ, explores the premise that God wants to relate to us as a close friend. Barry has contemplated this idea – radical for many Christians – throughout his lifetime, and he explains that it actually traces back to the “developing revelation of God contained in the Bible.”

A Friendship Like No Other offers three well-supported and practical sections: prayerful exercises to lead you to the conviction that God wants our friendship; a close look at objections to this idea; and reflections on experiencing the presence of God and discerning those experiences. Brief, personal meditations are woven throughout.

Grounded in biblical tradition and with a clear focus on Ignatian spirituality, this book offers a fresh, heart-changing approach to living joyfully in the freedom of the divine embrace.

So pick up a book and join us! We look forward to welcoming you.
