Welcome!

To visitors to our Parish, to those who have recently moved into the area and to those comfortable and nourished here—Welcome To All. And, regardless of your status in the Church, your marital state, your ethnicity, your prior religious experience, your personal history, background or sexual orientation, please know that you are accepted and respected at Saint Mary–Saint Catherine of Siena Parish. Please introduce yourself to the priest and register as a member of our Parish.

About Us

Saint Mary - Saint Catherine of Siena is an intentionally inclusive Roman Catholic Parish that welcomes all those who make up our diverse community in a way that reflects God's love. Nourished by the Gospel and the real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist, we build a vibrant Parish that strengthens our faith and elevates our worship. With gratitude for the gifts God has bestowed upon us, we respond to His call to stewardship and embrace our lives of service and compassion.

Thanks be to God

As I look back over these many years as a priest and before, I realize that my life has been more of a response to rather than a planning for.

Before I was a priest, my brother, Ed, and I would often meet up in the city for lunch or dinner. I recall on one occasion, he asked me what my life plan was. Where did I see myself in 5 and 10 years? I came up with an answer that was nothing more than spontaneous. Somehow, by God's generous Grace, I have found my purpose and joy in being, especially as I have sought to respond to the call and prompting of God's loving Spirit.

For me, the consequence of living in this way has been an overarching sense of gratitude to God for all I have received. I have found God's Grace is ever-present, even in the most troubling of times.

Today, concluding these 18 years as pastor in this vibrant faith community and 40 years as a priest, I am amazed by all that has happened and overwhelmed by gratitude to God and to so many who have been part of this journey with me. The support and love of my dear family while I served in places near and far away has meant so much to me.

The parish pastoral team along with councils and committees and so many others have been a joy, literally and figuratively! Parishioners here, now, and so many who have moved on and passed away have enriched my life in countless ways.

So it is, this is the day that, once again, I thank God and all of you. I am blessed beyond measure – spoiled you might say! I carry all of you and the experiences of these years with me as I leave. And in return, for all I have received, I can only offer a promise of my continued prayers for this beautiful parish community.

Un mensaje del padre Ronan

Cuando miro hacia atrás a estos muchos años como sacerdote y antes, me doy cuenta de que mi vida ha sido más una respuesta que una planificación.

Antes de ser sacerdote, mi hermano Ed y yo nos reuníamos a menudo en la ciudad para almorzar o cenar. Recuerdo que en una ocasión me preguntó cuál era mi proyecto de vida. ¿Dónde me veo en 5 y 10 años? Se me ocurrió una respuesta que no fue más que espontánea. De alguna manera, por la generosa gracia de Dios, he encontrado mi propósito y alegría de ser, especialmente cuando he buscado responder al llamado y la inspiración del Espíritu amoroso de Dios.

Para mí, la consecuencia de vivir de esta manera ha sido un sentido general de gratitud a Dios por todo lo que he recibido. He descubierto que la gracia de Dios está siempre presente, incluso en los momentos más difíciles.

Hoy, concluyendo estos 18 años como pastor en esta vibrante comunidad de fe y 40 años como sacerdote, estoy asombrado por todo lo que ha sucedido y abrumado por la gratitud a Dios y a tantos que han sido parte de este viaje conmigo. El apoyo y el amor de mi querida familia mientras serví en lugares cercanos y lejanos ha significado mucho para mí.

¡El equipo pastoral parroquial junto con los consejos y comités y tantos otros han sido una alegría, literal y figurativamente! Los feligreses aquí, ahora, y tantos que se han mudado y fallecido han enriquecido mi vida de innumerables maneras.

Así es, este es el día que, una vez más, doy gracias a Dios ya todos ustedes. Soy bendecido más allá de toda medida, ¡podría decirse que mimado! Los llevo a todos ustedes y las experiencias de estos años conmigo mientras me voy. Y a cambio, por todo lo que he recibido, solo puedo ofrecer una promesa de mis continuas oraciones por esta hermosa comunidad parroquial.

Pentecost

Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and enkindle us in the fire of your love. O Lord, on this day of Pentecost, give us the grace and strength to go forth from our homes and parishes to bring the Gospel message to the world we encounter each day of our lives. Amen

INSPIRING

Have you ever felt inspired? Ever seen a movie, heard a concert or performance and felt the actors and performers were inspired? How about a talk or speech – ever been inspired by something like that? What does it mean to be inspired?

Well technically one could say it means to “be – in – spirit”. It is one of those things that are hard to define, yet one can recognize it when seen. And it is hard because it is not tangible, not measurable or quantifiable. One could describe an event as “very inspiring” and everyone would know the person was touched, moved inside, lifted up to a level of feeling and awareness – taken to some almost new place ... I cannot imagine anyone who does not like the experience of being inspired.

On Sunday, June 5, Christians celebrate the Feast of Pentecost, recalling the day on which the Holy Spirit came down upon the Apostles. The immediate impact of the event was that these men stepped out into the world and spoke, in a very inspiring way, about Jesus. The rest is history.

Christianity was born on that feast – even called the “birthday of the Church”. Jesus had promised the sending of the Holy Spirit and had explained that the Spirit would be an “Advocate”, a “Helper”. As the centuries passed, the Church came to understand more and more of the role of the Holy Spirit. The Spirit is the active, dynamic force and power of God in the world each moment of every day.

A Christian receives the gift of the Holy Spirit at the moment of Baptism and the fullest gifts of the Spirit in Confirmation. Yet most Christians are not too aware of the presence of the Spirit in their lives. Again, the Spirit moves like a breeze – no one knows where it comes from or where it goes to – yet one certainly knows it is real. So how “In-Spirit” are you and are your days?

For me, I use the “surprise index” to gauge this. By this, I mean the number of times I become aware of something I say or do and I am surprised – I do not know where that came from and how it came to me. Likely, you have known the same phenomenon. I believe the Spirit of God works in all of us who have received the Spirit and are open to God’s Grace. The Gifts of the Holy Spirit are seven: Wisdom, Knowledge, Understanding, Counsel, Reverence, Courage and Holy Wonder. Looking closely at these gifts and their presence in a person’s life is truly an experience of seeing the Holy Spirit in action.

For example, listening to a truly wise person: one who sees the deeper meaning in life’s events and finds God’s presence in all of nature and creation. One who can see the truth with clarity and treats others with dignity. Such a person’s gifts are hard to measure and a wonder to behold – indeed the work of the Holy Spirit! The Spirit is generous, ubiquitous and delightful. The Spirit is playful, fun and wonderful. The Spirit is deep, serious and profound and so much more.

I believe the Holy Spirit flows from God the Father and God the Son and is the ever-present movement of God in our world. For many of us who spend our days in ministry in the Church and for many Christians, our constant companion is the Holy Spirit and what a joy that is! Moreover, as I consider all of the many gifts and foibles of our beloved Church, I am convinced that the Church will endure, not because of the competency of popes, bishops, pastors, deacons and laity, rather because of the enduring presence of God’s loving Holy Spirit abiding in and with this Church. This Church includes you and me!

Offertory Commitment

By now, Parishioners have seen our annual Offertory Commitment brochure. This important document describes how making a commitment plan helps the Parish determine its financial needs and prepare for the future.

Thank you to all those who have already responded. If you have not responded, please take some time to prayerfully consider how you can best support your parish. Then take a few minutes to review this simple brochure, complete it and return it: you may do so by placing it in the collection basket on the weekend or by mailing it to the Parish Center on 46 Winthrop Street.

We are very grateful to the many parishioners who support our Parish by making their weekly offertory contributions.

MOMENTS IN TIME

Dear Fr. Ronan,

We have been blessed throughout the years to have you as our pastor, our employer, our mentor, our teacher, our supporter, our guide, our challenger, and our consoler.

You have regaled us with stories and with laughter, and enlightened us with your wisdom. In every season of our time together, you have been a steadfast presence, a model of how to serve God's people and how to trust in God throughout the ups and downs of life. We are truly grateful to you for all of this and more.

We thank you, also, for sharing Lily with us. She filled our hearts with love and joy.

As you write this new chapter in your life with God by your side, know that you go with our gratitude, love, and prayers and that you will always be remembered for the gift you have been to us.

La tarde de Pascua, Jesús en el cenáculo «sopló sobre ellos [sus discípulos] y les dijo: «Recibid el Espíritu Santo»» [Jn 20,19-23 Ndr]]. Este soplo de Cristo evoca el gesto de Dios que, en la creación, «sopló sobre el hombre, hecho de polvo del suelo, un aliento de vida, y resultó el hombre un ser viviente» (Gn 2,7). Con aquel gesto Jesús viene a decir, por lo tanto, que el Espíritu Santo es el soplo divino que da vida a la nueva creación, como dio vida a la primera creación. El Salmo responsorial subraya este tema: «Envías tu soplo y son creados, y renuevas la faz de la tierra» [Sal 103,1-34. Ndr].

Proclamar que el Espíritu Santo es creador significa decir que su esfera de acción no se restringe sólo a la Iglesia, sino que se extiende a toda la creación. Ningún tiempo, ningún lugar están privados de su presencia activa. Él actúa en la Biblia y fuera de ella; actúa antes de Cristo, en el tiempo de Cristo y después de Cristo, si bien nunca separadamente de Él. «Toda verdad, de donde quiera que venga dicha -escribió Santo Tomás de Aquino-, viene del Espíritu Santo». Ciertamente: la acción del Espíritu de Cristo fuera de la Iglesia no es la misma que dentro de la Iglesia y en los sacramentos. Allí Él actúa por poder, aquí por presencia, en persona.

Lo más importante, a propósito del poder creador del Espíritu Santo, no es en cambio comprenderlo o explicar sus implicaciones, sino experimentarlo. ¿Y qué significa experimentar al Espíritu como creador? Para descubrirlo partimos del relato de la creación. «En el principio creó Dios los cielos y la tierra. La tierra era caos y confusión y oscuridad por encima del abismo, y un viento de Dios aleteaba por encima de las aguas» (Gn 1, 1-2). Se deduce que el universo existía ya en el momento en que interviene el Espíritu, pero aún era informe y tenebroso, caos. Es después de su acción cuando lo creado asume contornos precisos; la luz se separa de las tinieblas, la tierra del mar, y todo adquiere una forma definida.

El Espíritu Santo es, por lo tanto, Aquél que permite pasar -a la creación- del caos al cosmos, el que hace así algo bello, ordenado, limpio (cosmos viene de la misma raíz que cosmético, i.e. quiere decir bello!), realiza así un «mundo», según el doble significado de esta palabra. La ciencia nos enseña hoy que este proceso ha durado miles de millones de años, pero lo que la Biblia quiere decirnos, con lenguaje sencillo e imaginativo, es que la lenta evolución hacia la vida y el orden actual del mundo no ocurrió por casualidad, obedeciendo a impulsos ciegos de la materia, sino por un proyecto aplicado en él, desde el inicio, por el creador.

La acción creadora de Dios no se limita al instante inicial; Él está siempre en acto de crear. Aplicado al Espíritu Santo, esto significa que Él es siempre el que hace pasar del caos al cosmos, esto es, del desorden al orden, de la confusión a la armonía, de la deformidad a la belleza, de la vejez a la juventud. Esto a todos los niveles: en el macrocosmos y en el microcosmos, o sea, en el universo entero así como en cada hombre.

Debemos creer que, a pesar de las apariencias, el Espíritu Santo está a la obra en el mundo y lo hace progresar. ¡Cuántos descubrimientos nuevos, no sólo en el campo físico, sino también en el moral y social! Un texto del Concilio Vaticano II dice que el Espíritu Santo está a la obra en la evolución del orden social del mundo («Gaudium et spes», 26). No es sólo el mal el que crece, sino también el bien, con la diferencia de que el mal se elimina, termina consigo mismo, mientras que el bien se acumula, permanece. Ciertamente aún existe mucho caos a nuestro alrededor: caos moral, político, social. El mundo tiene todavía mucha necesidad del Espíritu Santo; por ello no debemos cansarnos de invocarle con las palabras del Salmo: «¡Envía tu Espíritu, Señor, y renueva la faz de la tierra!».

Pentecost Sunday - June 4/5, 2022

In today's first reading we encounter the Holy Spirit who at Pentecost came rushing in over Jesus' followers like a powerful wind. It must have been a frightening experience for them. But their great acts of prophetic witness began when the Spirit drew them out of their "comfort zones." Jesus said the Holy Spirit, like the wind, blows where it will; into the lives of good stewards, empowering them to perform wondrous acts of healing, reconciliation and evangelization; encouraging them to proclaim the Gospel with boldness and confidence. All of that is a little beyond the comfort zone where most of us live our lives. This week, reflect on how the Holy Spirit may be calling you out of your personal comfort zone.

The Month of June is Dedicated to The Sacred Heart of Jesus

For a long time, the Church has designated the month of June to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. The designation of the solemn feast of the Sacred Heart is on the Friday following the feast of Corpus Christi. This year the Sacred Heart feast is celebrated on June 23. Biblically and spiritually we understand the heart to symbolize the center of one's being, love, mercy, faithfulness, tenderness, compassion and other affective emotions. Below is a prayer to the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

All-loving Sacred Heart of Jesus, I pledge to you my whole heart. I see your heart personally on fire for love of me and all your creation. I want to rest in this source of your mercy and compassion and to experience the love of God. Call me into deeper friendship, Jesus. Help me to use your gifts in service of our brothers and sisters, to spread your message of goodwill to this world. I give myself entirely to you and I ask the Holy Spirit to make me more like you. I want to love the way you love. I offer you my heart. Please help me always to remain aware of how deeply your heart beats in concern for those who seek you by teaching me your way of love. With this grace I have all I need. Amen.

clergytrust healthier priests.
stronger communities.

Fr. Matt Williams, pastor at the St. J's Collaborative in Quincy, has built a thriving parish community thanks to his JOY (Jesus-Others-Yourself) Movement, which helps parishioners of all ages connect with their faith and as a family. Help support priests like Fr. Matt who are building stronger communities for all by supporting the Clergy Trust Easter collection.
