CHANGE IS TOUGH

We thought you might enjoy a reprint of an article by Fr. Ronan

I was twenty years old and finishing my second year of college when my parents decided it was time to sell the family home in Dorchester. Some of my older siblings had already moved on and I was the youngest. The neighborhood had changed a lot and my Dad planned to semi-retire and make a move to a smaller home in the suburbs. I spent a lot of that summer cleaning, moving and packing, and remembering. What a great old house that was and how hard it was to say goodbye – to change and to move on.

My story and memories are no different then those of so many of you as well, I imagine. We have all gone through changes in life – it is simply part of the journey. And if there has not been too much changing in your life – just wait a minute – something will come along real soon! Changes in the Church are sort of like changes in our homes and families – they are so close and personal to us. Of course we all come to realize that change is inevitable in all but the most fundamental things.

For example, our faith that sustains us daily; the love we share in families and friendships and the hope that is ours for tomorrow and into the future. These are all constants and we depend upon them each day. Our faith, hope and love may grow, be challenged and be taken for granted – but they are cornerstones of our life. It seems so much else changes. People, relationships, experiences, work, institutions, products, places and on and on – all come and go, leaving us to cope with an ever changing landscape.

And how do we cope as men and women of Faith with the changes in our lives and world? Some see changes as conspiracy and are threatened by change. Others see changes as exciting and inevitable and positive. Some are indifferent, others passionate about holding on to whatever.

For me, 6 Percival Street is gone – forever. All that was important in my life that happened at 6 Percival Street is a part of me and my brothers and sisters and our lives. Saying goodbye was hard as it often is. But, saying goodbye usually means we are saying hello as well. And if my history is any indication of my journey, and maybe yours, God has always been active in both the goodbyes and hellos – sustaining, helping guiding. In fact, it is in exactly the act of letting go of what is comfortable and familiar that we are invited to trust in the God who knows us so well and loves us so much. Sustained by this trust, we can go forward with hope.

September 4 ~ Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus challenges his disciples and us to be dedicated to his mission. He acknowledges that discipleship is demanding – involving sacrifice, possible persecution and suffering. When our following of Christ makes us feel weighed down by the sadness that seems to surround us, or that our efforts to be faithful to Christ don't seem to make any difference- take the refrain of today's psalm to your prayer. "In every age, O God, you have been our refuge. . . you have been our hope." Ask God for the grace to rely on him, to renew your hope, to bless your efforts to remain faithful, no matter what!

VOTING INFORMATION

For the State Primary on Tuesday, September 6, 2022, early voting takes place in the City of Boston from Saturday, August 27, through Friday, September 2.

Unlike traditional polling, you don't have to vote at your assigned polling location. Vote at the location that is most convenient for you. All ballot styles will be available at every early voting location.

All early voting locations are accessible to voters with disabilities. Every location will also have AutoMark machines for voters who need help marking their ballots.

WHERE TO VOTE

There are a number of early voting sites for the State Election, including Boston City Hall. If you plan to vote early, you have until 5 p.m. on Friday, September 2.

PLEASE NOTE:

If you miss the early voting period, you can still vote on Tuesday, September 6, on the date of the State Primary. Please go to web site for voting locations for your ward & precinct at <https://www.sec.state.ma.us/elec/>

Prayer for Labor Day

On this weekend, when we rest from our usual labors, loving God, we pray for all those who shoulder the tasks of human labor—in the marketplace, in factories and offices, in the professions, and in family living.

We thank you, Lord, for the gift and opportunity of work; may our efforts always be pure of heart, for the good of others and the glory of your name.

We lift up to you all who long for just employment and those who work to defend the rights and needs of workers everywhere.

May those of us who are now retired always remember that we still make a valuable contribution to our Church and our world by our prayers and deeds of charity.

May our working and our resting all give praise to you until the day we share together in eternal rest with all our departed in your Kingdom as you live and reign Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

September is the month of the SEVEN SORROWS (DOLORS) OF MARY

Devotion to Our Lady of Sorrows became a standard devotion in the Church around the 14th century. It was revealed to St. Bridget of Sweden suffered alongside her Divine Son as he gave his life to save the world, and she felt the bitterness of his passion as only a mother can. This devotion is especially remembered during September, the Month of Our Lady of Sorrows (the feast of Our Lady of Sorrows is September 15th), and during the season of Lent.

1. The prophecy of Simeon. (St. Luke 2:34, 35)
2. The flight into Egypt. (St. Matthew 2:13, 14)
3. The loss of the Child Jesus in the temple. (St. Luke 2: 43 - 45)
4. The meeting of Jesus and Mary on the Way of the Cross.
5. The Crucifixion.
6. The taking down of the Body of Jesus from the Cross.
7. The burial of Jesus

(1303-1373) that devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary's Seven Sorrows would bring great signal graces. The devotion consists in praying seven Hail Mary's while meditating on the Seven Sorrows of Mary. Mary, in a unique way, willingly

September 8 - The Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary

The Church has celebrated Mary's birth since at least the sixth century. A September birth was chosen because the Eastern Church begins its Church year with September. The September 8 date helped determine the date for the feast of the Immaculate Conception on December 8.

Scripture does not give an account of Mary's birth. However, the apocryphal Protoevangelium of James fills in the gap. According to this account, Anna and Joachim are infertile but pray for a child. They receive the promise of a child who will advance God's plan of salvation for the world. Such a story, like many biblical counterparts, stresses the special presence of God in Mary's life from the beginning.

Saint Augustine connects Mary's birth with Jesus' saving work. "She is the flower of the field from whom bloomed the precious lily of the valley. Through her birth the nature inherited from our first parents is changed." The opening prayer at Mass speaks of the birth of Mary's Son as the dawn of our salvation, and asks for an increase of peace.

RCIA A JOURNEY IN FAITH

Have you been worshiping with us, but never officially took the step to become Catholic? Have you been away from the church and have now returned, but want to know more?

Have you been a Catholic all your life, but never celebrated all the Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Confirmation, Eucharist?)

Have you joined us from a different background and would now like to find out more about the Catholic Church?

If any of the above questions apply to you, we are here to accompany you on your journey of faith. Or, if you know of anyone who could answer YES to any of the above questions, perhaps you could extend an invitation to them!

Have you been worshiping with us, but never officially took the step to become Catholic?

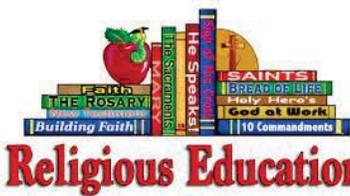

Have you been

In recent years, there has been a great increase in the number of adults who are joining the Catholic Church. RCIA is a program designed to help non-Catholics and non-practicing Catholics learn more about the Catholic faith through a series of readings, discussions, and prayer time. This program helps people grow in faith and knowledge of God, and develop a deeper relationship with God as they consider becoming Catholic.

If you are not yet sure whether you want to become Catholic, you are still welcome to participate as you make your decision. There is no obligation to join the Catholic Church and regardless of your decision you are always welcome here at St. Mary-St. Catherine of Siena Parish.

Family Formation calls will continue once per month, and we will encourage families to gather for Mass together throughout the year.

Confirmation classes will follow the same structure, with classes and calls on Sunday evenings.

Youth Group (grades 5-7) will also continue once per month on a Sunday evening.

We will have a Welcome Zoom Call on Catechetical Sunday, September 18, and our first in-person classes will be the week of October 2. Please contact Katy Fleming

FANS DE JESÚS

En el verano de 1998 un hombre que vivía en Amsterdam fue a confesarse con su párroco. “Padre, este es mi pecado. Durante la segunda guerra mundial di refugio a un judío muy rico para salvarle la vida de los Nazis.

El cura le dijo que había hecho una acción que exigía mucha generosidad y valentía y le preguntó: ¿por qué cree que ha cometido un pecado? “Padre, le exigí que tenía que pagarme 20 gulden por cada semana que estuviera en mi casa”.

La verdad es que no debería sentirse muy orgulloso, pero lo hizo por una buena causa, le dijo el cura. “Gracias, Padre, por su comprensión, pero tengo una pregunta más que hacerle.

¿Tengo que decirle al judío que la guerra ya ha terminado? Ser cristiano tiene un precio. Nuestro hombre quiso hacer el bien pero no al estilo de Jesús sino al estilo de los hombres, es decir, sin renunciar a la avaricia, sin sacrificar nada, haciéndose unas rebajas, queriendo servir a dos señores.

Cuando llega el tiempo de las rebajas los grandes almacenes se llenan de gentes que compran lo que no necesitan simplemente porque está de rebajas. El evangelio de este domingo comienza así: “En aquel tiempo, mucha gente acompañaba a Jesús”. La gente de ayer y la de hoy en este aburrimiento vital necesita descubrir una celebridad, alguien a quien admirar y de quien poder hablar. Muchos seguían a Jesús, la celebridad del momento, por razones equivocadas. Jesús obraba signos maravillosos, era irreverente en su lenguaje, se acercaba peligrosamente a los marginados, se reía de la ley...y mucha gente le seguía buscando su propio interés.

Jesús tenía todos los ingredientes de una celebridad y los que sólo veían su lado humano terminaron admirando una mera celebridad durante un tiempo y luego se olvidaron de él. Hoy, en esta cristiandad secularizada, los profesionales de la religión añoran los buenos tiempos, los de ayer, las iglesias llenas, el prestigio del cura, la mucha gente que aparentemente acompañaba a Jesús. La medida de los hombres es el número, número de fans, número de socios, número de fieles, números de la cuenta corriente...

“Jesús se volvió y les dijo: No puede ser discípulo mío el que no pospone a su familia, el que no lleve su cruz detrás de mí, el que no renuncie a todos sus bienes”. Jesús se vuelve a sus fans y les grita sus avisos y sus condiciones. Las celebridades mundanas se contentan con los aplausos y los piropos de sus seguidores. Es muy barato. Jesús pone condiciones que, a muchos, asustan. Ser seguidor de Jesús, ser cristiano, seguir el camino, es caro. Tiene un precio.

En la vida cotidiana decimos: Mi familia, Mi dinero, Mi institución, Mi país... Todo gira en torno a Mí, a mi libertad, a mi elección. Somos poseídos por el yo. Jesús nos pide relativizar todo lo que es pasajero y adherirnos a lo que es eterno. El precio a pagar es hacer de Dios el único necesario, el absoluto. Nada ni nadie es más que Jesús para un cristiano. Nada ni nadie merece mi absoluta lealtad, sólo Jesús. Nada ni nadie es digno de todo mi amor, sólo Jesús. “Pero tengo contra ti que has dejado tu amor primero”.

Todo tiene un límite. Sólo a Jesús, si quiero ser su discípulo, no le puedo poner límites. Sólo Él es el primero en la lista de mis prioridades. La religión en espíritu y verdad es cara. A Jesús le costó nada menos que la vida. Los seguidores de Jesús, a pesar de nuestra buena voluntad, somos traicionados por nuestro débil y ansioso corazón. El corazón se apega a las cosas, a las personas, al dinero, al propio yo y le cuesta posponer ese falso oropel al Señor Jesús. Queremos seguir a Jesús sin dejar nada de lo que nos da seguridad.

Los seguidores de Jesús, inmersos en este mundo, respiramos sus valores, admiramos sus ídolos, la cruz se nos antoja dura y monstruosa, vivimos indecisos, amamos los dos por igual y no acabamos de hacer la Gran Elección, elegir a Jesús. Y a pesar de las exigencias que Jesús impone a sus discípulos, su yugo es menos exigente y da más alegría y libertad que el yugo de la Iglesia. “Mi yugo es suave y mi carga ligera” lo dice Jesús y es verdad.
