Roman Catholic Parish

Charlestown, Massachusetts ▪ Archdiocese of Boston

stmarystcatherine.org

Our Mission is to make active disciples of Jesus Christ by creating a welcoming community rich in spirituality and by moving people to embrace their God-given talents in the service of others and the care of creation.

October 23, 2022

Welcome!

To visitors to our Parish, to those who have recently moved into the area and to those comfortable and nourished here—Welcome To All. And, regardless of your status in the Church, your marital state, your ethnicity, your prior religious experience, your personal history, background or sexual orientation, please know that you are accepted and respected at Saint Mary–Saint Catherine of Siena Parish. Please introduce yourself to the priest and register as a member of our Parish.

About Us

Saint Mary - Saint Catherine of Siena is an intentionally inclusive Roman Catholic Parish that welcomes all those who make up our diverse community in a way that reflects God's love. Nourished by the Gospel and the real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist, we build a vibrant Parish that strengthens our faith and elevates our worship. With gratitude for the gifts God has bestowed upon us, we respond to His call to stewardship and embrace our lives of service and compassion.

Friends,

I was rummaging through my room recently and I came across this letter I sent to Pope Francis in 2015 as a response to his request for input into the 2015 Synod on the Family. I thought you might be interested so would like to share this with you. I figure if I feel empowered to express my views with the Pope, then I am also privileged to share them with our parishioners in Charlestown. I feel the same way 7 years later.

Dear Pope Francis:

I hope life is treating you well. I am a priest in the Archdiocese of Boston and thank you for giving me permission to be human and for reminding us that it is the gospel against which we measure our lives.

I am responding to your inquiry regarding the Synod on the Family 2015. These are my feelings and beliefs in no particular order;

- Our belief in the sacrament of marriage is based on “what God has joined together we much not separate” We are under the impression that if a couple is married in the Church that therefore they have been joined by God. We now know that God is beyond organized religion and that no one has captured God. With that in mind, there may be many couples married civilly whom God has joined together, while there could be couples married in the eyes of the church whom God has not joined. The present view limits God and alienates many Catholics from the church and the Eucharist.
- According the Second Vatican Council there are two purposes of Marriage: to foster the love between the couple, and the procreation of children. Sometimes the fear of conceiving children can negatively affect the love that a couple need to express intimately and sexually. Our view of birth control must be relaxed.
- I couldn't agree with you more “the Eucharist is food for the journey, not a reward for being good.” Coming to the Eucharistic table can be as healing as celebrating the sacrament of reconciliation. The good done by going to communion far outweighs any good done by not going to communion.

- Our world today sees all creation as a gift of God. In fact, creation reveals God's presence to humanity. There are many ways of protecting our environment for future generations. The present birth rate can be a serious threat to our planet.
- No one enters into a marriage apart from their culture, history, background and life experience. Even though a person appears to be mature when they pronounce their marriage vows, we now know many are products or victims of alcoholism, addiction, abuse and domestic violence, which surely affects their ability to freely make that commitment.
- We need to return to the understanding of vocation to the priesthood as a call from the community based on the gifts, skills and spiritual health of a member of a certain community. They are chosen because they are gifted. Today, we rely on an individual deciding to study for the priesthood and then assume they and they alone possess the necessary giftedness, e.g. because someone is ordained we believe he has the gift of preaching or because he becomes a priest we place him in the Sacrament of Reconciliation as counselor and/or spiritual director.
- If the institutional church and the gospel are at odds, it is the life of Christ that must be the measure against which we make our decisions. Sometimes it may even be the difference between words attributed to Christ and his life story that forces us to choose. The guiding principle is that Christ healed those no one would heal, touched those no one would touch, forgave those no one would forgive and loved those no one would love. That is the gospel message unabridged.
- We have progressed greatly in our understanding of sexuality over the years. We now realize that sexual orientation is not a choice but determined by genetics. It is therefore inhumane and unchristian to demand lifelong sexual abstinence from those who are homosexual or lesbian or transgender while encouraging those who are heterosexual to pursue and intimate sexual relationship in marriage.

I applaud you and those surrounding you for your determination to let the Catholic people in the world know that it is their baptism that makes them citizens of the Church.

May God continue to challenge us to be all we are meant to be as individuals and as Church.

Enjoy life!

Ron Coyne

October 23 ~ Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Pharisee in today's gospel is filled with self-praise whereas the tax collector is filled with humility, "O God, be merciful to me a sinner." This parable tells us important things about prayer. When praying we need only place ourselves honestly and humbly before God. There is no need to make comparisons to others, no need of praising ourselves for the good we think we have done, and certainly no need to think ourselves unworthy of God's mercy and love. Make your prayer like that of the tax collector, seeing ourselves like others – a sinner among sinners all in need of God's mercy! Remembering the words of the psalmist: "The Lord hears the cry of the poor."

Un día de sol un elefante se bañaba en un río de la jungla. Un ratón se acercó a la orilla y contemplaba al elefante y le dijo: elefante, sal del agua. -¿Por qué?- Cuando salgas te lo diré. El elefante salió del agua y le preguntó: ¿Qué quieres, ratón? Sólo quería ver si llevabas puesto mi traje de baño.

El domingo pasado, el Señor nos decía que hay que orar siempre sin desanimarse y nos contaba el cuento del juez malvado y la viuda persistente e insistente. Hoy, el Señor quiere denunciar "a los que se creen justos y desprecian a los demás". Hoy, el Señor quiere sacar los colores a unos cuantos de nosotros. Y a través de estos dos personajes del evangelio, el fariseo y el publicano, nos quiere hacer ver cómo es Dios y cómo somos nosotros. ¿Cómo es el fariseo?

En su oración no pide nada. Sólo habla y ora desde el Yo. Yo... Juzga a los otros, es justo, santo, bueno... No hay sitio para Dios en su vida. Su Yo lo llena todo. Para él Dios es como el presidente de una gran corporación y el fariseo aspira a convertirse en el director. ¿Tiene usted problemas con las personas que vienen a la iglesia? ¿Verdad que observa a la gente y se fija en si cantan, si responden, si saludan a los hermanos? ¿Y los juzga? Y piensa, yo no soy como éstos.

El fariseo salió del templo como entró: lleno de sí mismo pero vacío de Dios. Salió del templo como entró: con su orgullo y su justicia pero sin la justicia ni el perdón de Dios. Su oración no iba dirigida a Dios sino a la galería. A Jesús no le gustó nada esa actitud farisaica. Y por eso nos dice: "Ay de los que se creen justos y desprecian a los demás". ¿Hay alguien aquí que se cree justo y desprecia a los demás? ¿Alguien viene a decirle a Dios y a los hermanos todo lo bueno que hace y lo bueno que se cree? Ciertamente, ustedes y yo hacemos cosas buenas.

Cuidamos de nuestras familias. Educamos a los hijos. Venimos el domingo al templo. Ayudamos a los vecinos y ayunamos en cuaresma. Cumplimos bien con nuestro trabajo. Estudiamos la Biblia. Somos casi tan buenos como el fariseo. Pero no venimos aquí a cantar nuestros méritos y hazañas. Venimos a cantar las hazañas de Dios. No venimos a pasar la factura a Dios y pedirle que nos pague nuestros trabajos. No venimos a decirle que no somos como los que nunca vienen aquí, sólo Dios sabe lo que hay en cada corazón.

A mi no me preocupan las cosas buenas que hago. A mi me duelen las obras buenas que no hago, los pecados que sí hago cada día y por eso vengo al templo, no como el fariseo y sí como el publicano abrumado por el peso de mi pecado. No miro a los demás, me miro a mi mismo, siempre necesitado del perdón de Dios.

Nadie es justo ante Dios, pero todos somos justificados si nos reconocemos pecadores, publicanos, ante Dios. Nadie está en la gracia de Dios, pero todos somos llenados de gracia si, arrepentidos, nos acercamos a Dios. Nadie puede presumir de nada ante Dios, sólo la fe en él nos reconcilia con su amor. La oración del publicano es verdadera, la del fariseo es una oración falsa.

La oración tiene que estar centrada en Dios. Sólo ora de verdad el que tiene una relación con Dios. El es el origen, centro y fin de nuestra vida. El yo tiene que morir para que el Espíritu hable por nosotros. La oración tiene que producir un cambio en nuestra vida. Orar no es intentar cambiar la mente de Dios, sus designios, orar es cambiar yo.

HURRICANE RELIEF

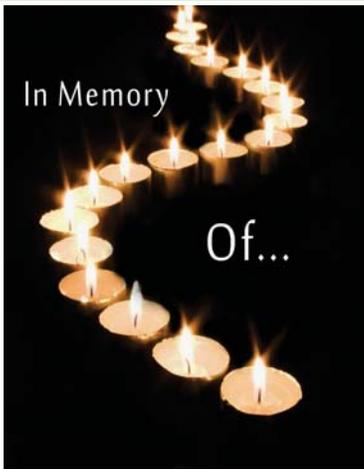

In the past month two Hurricanes, Ian and Fiona, have caused enormous damage and tragic loss of life Puerto Rico and south-eastern Florida.

Recognizing the growing need for assistance, Cardinal Seán has asked that a special collection be taken in all parishes in the Archdiocese of Boston. For the weekend of October 30th, there will be a second collection at the Masses for Hurricane Relief.

Funds raised will support the efforts of the USCCB Bishops Disaster Relief Fund, which will work through local Catholic Charities diocesan agencies. The money will meet needs such as clean water, food, shelter, medical care and aid in long-term rebuilding and recovery efforts. It also will support the pastoral and social needs of the Church in areas affected by the hurricanes.

Please address your checks to the parish, with "Hurricane Relief" in the memo.

On behalf of the Cardinal, thank you for your attentiveness to this important collection and expression of our solidarity with those who are suffering.

MASS OF REMEMBRANCE

Sunday, November 6 at 6PM

All parishioners are invited to participate in our Mass of Remembrance on November 6 at 6PM. At this liturgy, the names of all persons for whom a Funeral Mass was celebrated in our Parish during the past year are included in the Litany of Remembrance and a candle is lighted for each one. We also remember and light a candle to represent all family, relatives and friends of our Parish Community who have gone to God, one for those who have died as a result of violence, one for those who have died from substance use, and one for those who have no one to remember them.

WOMEN'S FAITH-SHARING GROUP

The women's group meets at 6:30 every two weeks at the Parish Center, 46 Winthrop Street. It's a wonderful opportunity to nurture your soul and make new friends. This year we will try a hybrid model, bringing together women in person and those on Zoom.

Thanksgiving Organ Concert

November 20, 2022 at 3:00pm

St. Mary-St. Catherine of Siena Parish

All are welcome to join our parish family for a concert on our very own Harris and Woodbury organ, featuring:

Rosalind Mohnsen

ROSALIND MOHNSEN has performed in such venues as Merrill Auditorium in Portland, Maine, Woolsey Hall at Yale University, The National Shrine in Washington, D.C., Holy Cross Cathedral in Boston, and St. Thomas Church in New York City. She has performed for Boston's First Night, A.G.O. Chapters in Richmond, Lincoln and Pasadena, twenty-three national conventions of the Organ Historical Society, the 2014 A.G.O. National Convention in Boston, and in Riga, Latvia and Stockholm, Sweden. She has been a pianist in the BSO Symphony Café. She served as Interim Organist and Director at the Cathedral of the Holy Cross in Boston and was the recipient of the 2018 Distinguished Service Award from the Organ Historical Society.

A native of Nebraska, she received the Bachelor of Music in Education degree in piano from the University of Nebraska and the Master of Music degree and Performer's Certificate in organ from Indiana University. Her organ studies were with Myron J. Roberts, Conrad Morgan, Robert Rayfield, and Jean Langlais. She is Director of Music and Organist at Immaculate Conception Church of Malden/Medford, Massachusetts and was formerly on the faculty of Westmar College, LeMars, Iowa. Rosalind has also been a huge supporter of our parish music ministry through the years.
