From our Pastor ...

In these times when social concerns are so important, I cannot fail to mention the Servant of God Dorothy Day, who founded the Catholic Worker Movement. Her social activism, her passion for justice and for the cause of the oppressed, were inspired by the Gospel, her faith, and the example of the saints.

How much progress has been made in this area in so many parts of the world! How much has been done in these first years of the third millennium to raise people out of extreme poverty! I know that you share my conviction that much more still needs to be done, and that in times of crisis and economic hardship a spirit of global solidarity must not be lost. At the same time I would encourage you to keep in mind all those people around us who are trapped in a cycle of poverty. They too need to be given hope. The fight against poverty and hunger must be fought constantly and on many fronts, especially in its causes.

-Pope Francis, Sept. 25,
2015, to the US Congress

Today's Gospel is one that many of us know by heart- words that can sound trite, as we live in a world that seems to grow colder and more distant by the day to the disadvantaged everywhere. There is so much poverty- in our world, our country and in our midst, that we can become unwittingly unaware and uncaring to those in our midst. Jesus expects us to un- failingly to reach out to those in our midst- to be the givers, the peacemakers, the compassionate ones, never counting the cost, or even imagining the glory that our acts of love may bring to us.

Dorothy Day is an extraordinary example of someone who lived the Beatitudes, to the point that at her funeral, Cardinal Terence Cooke noted that perhaps a saint lived in our midst, and behold, the day of her canonization draws near. She lived a life of extremes and was at times controversial, but her desire to love and serve the poor and marginalized was second to none. I see that love and respect revealed in so many ways here- particularly through our own Harvest on Vine. What a rich blessing it is- for not just those in our midst, but for all of us- an opportunity to joyously live Jesus's words.

God is calling us through the Beatitudes to not just appreciate but respond to the invitation to live humbly, show mercy, and respond generously. The needy wait- may we respond- anyway we can.

January 29 ~ Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

It has been said that at one time or another, we will be invited to assume the attitude that each one of the Beatitudes speaks of. To those caught up in worldly values, these beatitudes can appear foolish and of little significance. However, we know that to offer mercy, to be a peacemaker, to live a chaste and pure life or to withstand insult because of your love of Christ - we need to take on the mind and heart of Christ. Pray for the grace to live each day with a “beatitude attitude.”

En el lenguaje común relacionamos la dicha con algo bueno, con algo que provoca gozo interior y con una indelible felicidad que viene de lo profundo de nuestro ser. Para cualquier persona religiosa la dicha verdadera es sentirse en comunión con la divinidad, con Dios. La persona religiosa sabe que vive en este mundo y que se siente ciudadano de la tierra, pero al mismo tiempo, aunque no sepa explicar cómo, también sabe que no es ni pertenece por entero a este mundo, se sabe ciudadano de un espacio y de un tiempo que están más allá de todo aquello que percibe por sus sentidos.

La experiencia religiosa cristiana nace del encuentro entre el ser humano y el espíritu de Jesús resucitado de entre los muertos. Jesús, el Cristo, está presente en medio de nosotros de manera espiritual, que es una manera de ser de la realidad. El cristiano, como persona religiosa, se sabe acompañado de Dios por medio de su Palabra, por medio de gestos y símbolos sacramentales, por medio de acciones portadoras de consuelo y de sentido.

El creyente sabe que Dios existe y que su presencia es tan real como el aire que respira, aunque no pueda verlo con sus ojos sensibles.

Las Bienaventuranzas del Evangelio son verdaderas consolaciones porque la persona religiosa, el creyente, como parte de la creación del mundo, no puede dejar de experimentar la desgracia, el dolor, la angustia, la decepción, el sufrimiento, etc. Sin embargo, y al mismo tiempo, encuentra en su experiencia religiosa la fuerza y el impulso necesarios para sobreponerse a todo aquello que es negatividad y que amenaza a su vida y persona. Las consolaciones son momentos trascendentales en nuestra existencia porque por medio de ellas la esperanza descubre que el cielo y la tierra no son dimensiones separadas ni desconectadas entre sí, antes, al contrario, intuye que forman parte de una misma realidad salidas de la mano del creador.

World Marriage Day (Sunday, Feb. 12)

Marriage is a living sacrament. It is a sign to the world of the invisible God living in our midst—the living God who bears fruit in the lives of two people who have promised to live out their lives together in mutual support and love. On the weekend of February 11/12, we will celebrate World Marriage Day in our Parish. Married couples will receive a special blessing and will be invited to restate their vows at each of our Masses that weekend. We look forward to praying and celebrating with you!

Blessing of the Throats

at all Masses on the weekend of February 5- St. Blaise

According to the Acts, while Blaise was being taken into custody, a distraught mother, whose only child was choking on a fishbone, threw herself at his feet and implored his intercession. Touched at her grief, he offered up his prayers, and the child was cured. Consequently, Saint Blaise is invoked for protection against injuries and illnesses of the throat.

CHARLESTOWN CATHOLIC PARISHES
NEW MASS SCHEDULE

My dear friends in Christ,

When I arrived here, I was immediately met with a challenge combining a weekday and weekend Mass schedule, with one full-time priest and some incredibly generous help from Frs. Anthony, Mark and Britto.

The Church calls us to make the Mass the center of the parish community, to make it accessible and reasonable. In light of this, I have been talking about this with our staffs and parish councils, and reached this decision:

Daily Mass at 8 am

Saturday at 9 am, Holidays at 9 am

Mon, Tues, Wed at St. Francis

Thurs, Fri & Sat at St. Mary- St. Catherine

Weekend Masses

Saturday

4 pm St. Francis

4 pm St. Mary- St. Catherine

Sunday

8 am St. Mary- St. Catherine

9:30 am St. Francis

11 am St. Mary- St. Catherine

6 pm St. Mary- St. Catherine

Holy Days: As announced.

This new schedule will be implemented
on the first weekend of Lent, Feb. 25-26.

Mass intentions scheduled will be adjusted.
I welcome your input on this important issue.

Thank you,
Fr. John

*We extend a warm welcome to all visitors and those who are new to our parishes of
