WELCOME!

To visitors to our parish, to those who have recently moved into the area, and to those who are comfortable and nourished here—welcome to all! Please introduce yourself to the priest, and register as a member of our parishes.

SAINT MARY - SAINT CATHERINE

Our Mission is to make active disciples of Jesus Christ by creating a welcoming community rich in spirituality and by moving people to share their God-given talents in the service of others and the care of creation.

We are an intentionally inclusive Roman Catholic parish that welcomes all those who make up our diverse community in a way that reflects God's love.

Nourished by the Gospel and the real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist, we strive to build a vibrant parish that strengthens our faith and elevates our worship.

SAINT FRANCIS DE SALES

Led by the Holy Spirit, the Parish Family of Saint Francis de Sales seeks to know and celebrate Jesus through Mass, Prayer, Sacrament and Service.

Saint Francis de Sales Church is the oldest consecrated church in New England, the oldest in the city of Boston in continuous service, and the fourth oldest in America, built in 1859, on the top of Bunker Hill. Saint Francis is known affectionately as the Firefighter's church – The statue of St. Florian, patron saint, is located in the bell yard next to the church.

From our Pastor ...

It is the Solemnity of Pentecost, when the Holy Spirit descended on the Apostles and sent them out to all nations! It's a time to look within and see all the gifts the Holy Spirit has given us in so many different ways. The Spirit today gives us all the tools we each need to reflect the presence of God. It's easy for us to compare, that others seem to have gifts that we perhaps wish we had, when we don't appreciate what's ready within and around us. May we never take for granted all that He has given us, may we find a way to give Him honor and praise in our particular way!

It's going to be an honor for me to have a couple of roles in the upcoming Bunker Hill Day and Week festivities, remembrances, and memorials. As we pause as a nation on Memorial Day, look to Bunker Hill Day, and remember those who have given their lives in the founding, defense, and protection of our country, may we always cherish and never take for granted the blessings we've received, but share them generously with others. Anne Frank wrote: "No one ever has become poor by giving." To all of us who have given so much- in this country who has so very much- we owe in return the gift of being generous to the poor, the needy, the homeless, the refugee. It's more than just kindness- it's our human responsibility.

At St. Francis, we're building an updated list of addresses, phone numbers and email addresses. Our collection envelope list is getting updated, so if you haven't received envelopes, you're new to the family or if you're not sure that you're registered, drop us a note at stfrancis02129@gmail.com or call Dianne Ludy at 617-242-4664 with your info (please specify that it's for St. Francis), or fill out a sheet in the church and we'll get you onboard! Soon we'll have online giving!

Our Installation and Inauguration Mass with Bishop O'Connell is next weekend: Sunday, June 4 at 11 am at St. Mary's Church! A collation will follow at Bishop Lawton Hall. Please invite everyone to join us!

I'd like to express our collective, sincere thanks to Oscar Calderon, James Santosuosso, and Kenny Rae, who worked to make the Bishop Lawton Hall so spectacularly clean! I also thank in advance our planning committee for the collation as we look ahead to the celebration next Sunday!

BUENA ADMINISTRACIÓN DE LOS DONES DE DIOS EN TIEMPOS DE CRISIS

Los buenos administradores reconocen las bendiciones de Dios en sus vidas. En agradecimiento, los buenos administradores desean poner al servicio de Dios y de los demás tanto como les sea posible. Ofrecen un sacrificio de alabanza a Dios a través del don de su tiempo, talento y tesoro al servicio de Dios y del prójimo, y a su vez, Dios derrama bendiciones sobre ellos. “Den, y les será dado; medida buena, apretada, remecida y rebosante, vaciarán en sus regazos. Porque con la medida con que midan, se les volverá a medir”. (Lucas 6:38) Esa es la experiencia de los buenos administradores.

Debemos aprender a dar lo mejor que tenemos a Dios y a los demás. ¿Por qué? No es solo porque Dios promete grandes bendiciones cuando lo hacemos, sino porque el significado de nuestras vidas se encuentra en llegar a ser como Jesús. Jesús dio su mejor tiempo, talento y tesoro a su Padre y a todos los que sirvió. Regalaba todo lo que tenía, incluso su propio cuerpo y sangre en sacrificio por nuestros pecados. ¿Cómo podemos dar así? Solo por la gracia de Dios.

Demos a Dios nuestro mejor tiempo.

Cuando oramos, a menudo le damos a Dios el tiempo restante. Trabajamos duro, volvemos a casa y nos involucramos con eventos familiares o nuestras propias actividades, y si hay un poco de tiempo antes de dormir, podríamos decir una oración. Eso es lo que yo llamo tiempo sobrante. Es poner a Dios último en la lista. ¡Dios debería ser el primero! Entonces, una buena administración del tiempo significa dar el mejor momento de nuestro día a Dios y a los demás.

Sugerencia: Haga una cita con Dios todos los días, ¡tal como lo haría con el médico! Es mucho más fácil mantener una cita cuando la tenemos escrita.

Demos a Dios y a los demás nuestros mejores talentos.

A menudo, el primer paso para hacerlo es descubrir los dones que tenemos y ser lo suficientemente valientes como para usarlos. Necesitamos confiar en lo que otros nos dicen sobre nuestros dones. A veces, otros pueden reconocer nuestros dones mejor que nosotros. Jesús dijo: “Ustedes son la luz del mundo”. (Mateo 5:14) No debemos ocultar nuestra luz debajo de una canasta.

Sugerencia: Haga una lista de las cosas que hace bien o los regalos que tiene, y luego pídale a alguien cercano que haga lo mismo. Ofrezcase al servicio de su parroquia u organización benéfica local en función de los regalos que haya identificado.

Demos a Dios nuestro mejor tesoro.

Mientras Jesús veía a las personas dar dinero en el área del templo, algunos se maravillaban de lo mucho que daban los ricos. ¡Jesús vio a una viuda poner dos monedas pequeñas en la colección y les dijo a sus discípulos que ella había dado más que todo lo demás! “Porque todos ellos echaron en la ofrenda de lo que les sobra, pero ella, de su pobreza, echó todo lo que tenía para vivir”. (Lucas 21:1-4) Nuevamente, podemos darle a Dios el dinero que sobra. Podemos “dar propina” a Dios, o a los pobres en nuestro medio. El buen administrador le da a Dios los primeros frutos de la cosecha.

Sugerencia: Piensa y reza profundamente sobre el sacrificio de Jesucristo y rézale por la gracia de hacer un sacrificio que se parezca al suyo. La única forma de comenzar a dar es hacerlo.

Oración del buen administrador

Querido Padre, rezo con un corazón agradecido. Me has bendecido de muchas maneras. Gracias por el tiempo que tengo ahora para rezarte. Gracias por el regalo de tiempo que puedo pasar con familiares y amigos, vecinos y desconocidos. Gracias por el regalo de estar vivo en este mundo y por la promesa de la vida eterna a través de Jesucristo.

Ayúdame, Padre, a usar sabiamente el tiempo, los talentos y el tesoro que me has dado. Concédeme un corazón generoso cuando rezo y pido que se haga tu voluntad en mi vida. Permíteme rendirme a ti como lo hizo Jesús. Concédeme la valentía para usar los dones y talentos que me has dado para la construcción del reino en la tierra. Ayúdame a no centrarme en mí y a servirte con generosidad. Que no busque reconocimiento o estatus en mi comunidad, sino solo servirte bien.

Pido esto en el nombre de Jesús. Amén

Timothy Donahue receiving First Holy Communion last Sunday, May 14th. Congratulations!

May 28 ~ Pentecost Sunday

There is a spirit of enthusiasm and joy in today's readings. Filled with the Holy Spirit, the disciples were unable to remain silent about the mighty acts of God. Each one was given a different gift, but each gift was given by the same Holy Spirit for the building up of the body of Christ. At our Baptism and Confirmation, the Holy Spirit poured out on each one of us the gifts we need to faithfully follow Christ.

This Pentecost, may we too, experience the enthusiasm and joy that the Holy Spirit has given us. Call on the Spirit today with the words, "Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and rekindle in them [me] the fire of your love!"

American Anthem

*All we've been given by those who came before - the dream of a nation, where freedom would endure.
The work and prayers of centuries have brought us to this day...
What shall be our legacy? What will our children say?*

*Let them say of me, I was one who believed in sharing the blessings I received.
Let me know in my heart when my days are through -
America, America... I gave my best to you.*

*Each generation from the plains to distant shores;
with the gifts what they were given, were determined to leave more.
Battles fought together; acts of conscience fought alone - these are the seeds from which America has grown.*

*For those who think they have nothing to share - who fear in their hearts there is no hero there.
Know each quiet act of dignity is that which fortifies
the soul of a nation that will never die.*

*Let them say of me, I was one who believed
in sharing the blessings I received.
Let me know in my heart when my days are through,
America, America... I gave my best to you.*

The Feast of the Visitation of Mary Monday, May 31, 2021

This feast commemorates the three-month visit of Mary with her elderly cousin Elizabeth during Mary's pregnancy with Jesus and Elizabeth's with John the Baptist. The story appears in the first chapter of Luke's Gospel. It recounts Elizabeth's Spirit-filled greeting, acknowledging Mary as "the mother of my Lord," and Mary's beautiful response, the Magnificat, which begins, "My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord." Introduced by the Franciscans in 1263, the feast became universal in the 16th century.
