SAINT MARY - SAINT CATHERINE

Our Mission is to make active disciples of Jesus Christ by creating a welcoming community rich in spirituality and by moving people to share their God-given talents in the service of others and the care of creation.

We are an intentionally inclusive Roman Catholic parish that welcomes all those who make up our diverse community in a way that reflects God's love.

Nourished by the Gospel and the real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist, we strive to build a vibrant parish that strengthens our faith and elevates our worship.

SAINT FRANCIS DE SALES

Led by the Holy Spirit, the Parish Family of Saint Francis de Sales seeks to know and celebrate Jesus through Mass, Prayer, Sacrament and Service.

Saint Francis de Sales Church is the oldest consecrated church in New England, the oldest in the city of Boston in continuous service, and the fourth oldest in America, built in 1859, on the top of Bunker Hill. Saint Francis is known affectionately as the Firefighter's church – The statue of St. Florian, patron saint, is located in the bell yard next to the church.

From our Pastor ...

I was sure by now, God, You would have reached down and wiped our tears away, stepped in and saved the day...

But once again, I say amen, and it's still raining.

As the thunder rolls, I barely hear Your whisper through the rain, "I'm with you."

And as Your mercy falls, I raise my hands and praise the God who gives and takes away.

And I'll praise You in this storm, and I will lift my hands...

'Cause You are who You are, no matter where I am...

and every tear I've cried, You hold in Your hand.

You never left my side... And though my heart is torn, I will praise You in this storm.

From Praise You in the Storm, written by Bernie Herms and Mark Hall

There are times in life, when somehow, we made it through something-doubt, injury, fear, sickness, whatever it may be- something we alone may know- but somehow, we found our way, or more likely, God found our way through. All He asks us to do is to trust Him. It's so hard to do that especially when we live in a world who keeps saying we can do anything-we can't, and that's not a bad thing. Jesus called Peter out, but his fear won out over his faith. He understands our doubts- let us cast away our fears a little and trust in His love for us when we're out on the waters.

- Many thanks to Fr. Louis Kemayou from the US Virgin Islands, who preached and presided at our Masses this weekend on behalf of the Propagation of the Faith.

THE SOLEMNITY OF THE ASSUMPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

August 15th

What is the Assumption?

The first name of this solemnity was the Feast of Mary, Mother of God. Later, its name in the East carried over, the Dormition (or Falling Asleep) of Mary. In the West, it became known as the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

This solemnity celebrates the fact that Mary's Assumption is "a pledge of the future participation of the members of the mystical Body of Christ in the paschal glory of the Risen Christ." It shows that the Lord "reserves a munificent reward for his humble Servant because of her faithful cooperation with the divine plan, which is a destiny of fullness, happiness, glorification of her immaculate soul, her virginal body, perfect configuration to her Risen Son" (Directory, no. 180). The Mass has a proper vigil, and the solemnity replaces the Mass of the day when it occurs on a Sunday in Ordinary Time.

What does this all mean?

On November 1, 1950, Pope Pius XII declared the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, which the Church celebrates every year on August 15. Simply put, the dogma of the Assumption states that at the end of her life, the Blessed Virgin Mary was taken, body and soul, into Heaven.

While this event isn't reflected in Sacred Scripture, it is clearly part of the Church's earliest observance. In the sixth century, St. John Damascene wrote in one of his sermons, "Your sacred and happy soul, as nature will have it, was separated in death from your most blessed and immaculate body, and although the body was duly interred, it did not remain in the state of death, neither was it dissolved by decay; your most pure and sinless body was not left on earth, but you were transferred to your heavenly throne."

Theologically speaking, death is often understood to be a consequence of original sin. Since Mary was conceived without Original Sin, some theologians have wondered if Mary died or if perhaps she was taken into Heaven without experiencing death. The Catechism of the Catholic Church doesn't answer this question but simply states, "The most blessed Virgin Mary, when the course of her earthly life was completed, was taken up body and soul into the glory of heaven" (no. 974)

The Solemnity of the Assumption reminds us of the unique role that Mary served in the process of our salvation. Although she was without sin, we have the possibility of receiving God's forgiveness for our sins through Christ. Her entry into Heaven prefigures our own hope of experiencing the same eternal life.

DÉCIMO
NOVENO
DOMINGO
del Tiempo Ordinario

Érase una vez un enfermo mental que insistía en que era Jesucristo. Ningún médico pudo convencerle de que se trataba de una ilusión, de que él era simplemente Félix Jiménez de Noviercas. Un día el médico le dijo que extendiera los brazos y lo midió y también lo midió de la cabeza a los pies. El médico salió y regresó con un martillo y unos clavos. El enfermo empezó a sentir gran curiosidad y nerviosismo. ¿Qué está haciendo?, le preguntó el enfermo. ¿Usted es Jesucristo, no es cierto? Sí, lo soy. Entonces, mientras el médico hacía una cruz, entonces usted debería saber lo que estoy haciendo.

Espere, espere, por favor, gritó el paciente, yo no soy Jesucristo. Yo soy Félix Jiménez de Noviercas. ¿Qué le pasa, doctor, está usted loco? ¿Hay aquí algún Félix Jiménez que cree ser Jesucristo?, que extienda las manos y lo mediremos. ¿Hay aquí alguien como Pedro que quiera caminar sobre las aguas del Duero? Todos, todos, estamos llamados a caminar al encuentro de Jesús. Todos, por lo tanto, llamados a caminar sobre las aguas.

Las aguas son el símbolo de las furias, la tormenta, las fuerzas del mal, la sed de venganza, la sed de la pasión que con sus rugidos apagan la voz de Jesús que nos dice: Ven. La llamada de Jesús es constante pero la tormenta en nuestra vida también es constante y por eso no oímos, no creemos, no caminamos con fe hacia Jesús que nos llama y vivimos como naufragos. Estamos llamados a caminar hacia Jesús no a ser Jesucristo. Sí a dar la vida por Jesucristo y los hermanos. Para caminar hacia Jesús hay que saber dónde encontrarle. Hay que aprender a escucharle.

El profeta Elías, defensor de Dios, se pasó toda la noche escuchando y comprobó que Dios no estaba en el viento, no estaba en el terremoto, no estaba en el fuego, y lo sintió presente y vivo en un levisimo susurro. Una vida y una hora en la iglesia para escuchar a Dios y sentirlo presente y vivo en su vida y en la asamblea litúrgica; para sentirlo vivo y presente en las pequeñas cosas, en los acontecimientos cotidianos, en el silencio y en lo inesperado. A Dios no se le puede programar. Dios es sorpresa constante.

Dios no está en la limusina blanca. Dios no está en las palabras sabias. Dios está en el suspiro vacilante de todo corazón que escucha, que busca al Dios escondido y se deja sorprender. Nos dice el evangelio que los discípulos iban solos en la barca. Jesús oraba en la montaña. Y la barca atravesaba por en medio de una gran tormenta. Solos en la barca. Solos en la tormenta. Solos en la impotencia. Solos en la comunidad. ¿Sabrán escuchar su voz y distinguir su presencia? No es un fantasma el que camina sobre las aguas. Es el Señor. La fe les abrió los ojos.

La Iglesia vive también este tiempo, separada de su Señor Resucitado que nos espera en la otra orilla y nos manda remar, trabajar, avivar la fe, enfrentar las tormentas, confesar a Jesús ausente-presente, y confiar en el poder de Jesucristo que viene a rescatarnos. Pedro dejó la barca para descubrir su propia debilidad y aprender a fiarse del poder de Dios. 1.- Confianza, la base de nuestra relación con Dios. 2.- Seguridad, ponerla en las manos de Dios. 3.- Llamada, escucharla cada día. 4.- Oración, "aumenta mi fe".

August 13 ~ Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The reading from the first Book of Kings recounts the prophet Elijah's encounter with God. Much to Elijah's surprise, God did not come to him in the wind or the earthquake, rather God came in a tiny whispering sound. In the Gospel, Jesus takes time apart to be in God's presence before joining the disciples. The storm which the disciples encounter causes them to be frightened and uncertain about Jesus' presence. The storms in our lives can cause us to forget who Jesus is and wants to be for us. The scriptures today remind us that whether we are in quiet prayer, or during a stormy time in our lives - God is present to relieve our fears and to give us hope, even when we least expect him. Be attentive then, God's presence is very likely to surprise you!
