Jesus stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." Luke 24:36

WELCOME

To visitors to our parish, to those who have recently moved into the area, and to those who are comfortable and nourished here—welcome to all!

SAINT MARY - SAINT CATHERINE

Our Mission is to make active disciples of Jesus Christ by creating a welcoming community rich in spirituality and by moving people to share their God-given talents in the service of others and the care of creation.

We are an intentionally inclusive Roman Catholic parish that welcomes all those who make up our diverse community in a way that reflects God's love.

Nourished by the Gospel and the real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist, we strive to build a vibrant parish that strengthens our faith and elevates our worship.

SAINT FRANCIS DE SALES

Led by the Holy Spirit, the Parish Family of Saint Francis de Sales seeks to know and celebrate Jesus through Mass, Prayer, Sacrament and Service.

Saint Francis de Sales Church is the oldest consecrated church in New England, the oldest in the city of Boston in continuous service, and the fourth oldest in America, built in 1859, on the top of Bunker Hill. Saint Francis is known affectionately as the Firefighter's church - The statue of St. Florian, patron saint, is located in the bell yard next to the church.

Here's the final class update from last night's Youth Group -

The class began with a session on Envy & Gratitude and involved a discussion on how to turn envy into gratitude. For example, instead of looking out on the world and seeing only ourselves, we should look out on the world and see the Goodness of God, in a million wondrous ways! We also watched some funny and familiar video clips that were on point about envy and gratitude. Then, we turned the discussion to Pride & Humility and reviewed what it means to be humble, particularly being guided by the simple and beautiful words of St. Francis of Assisi, "For it is giving that we receive."

Thank you to Reilly and Kyla for co-leading a fun and interactive class with Kerry last night and also for sharing their personal experiences about being confirmation candidates this year. Thank you to Father John for joining us at last night's discussion and sharing his understanding of humility. Finally, a very special acknowledgement goes to Kerry for teaching Youth Group all year and so well, and for leading us with her insights and guidance at each class and with the very meaningful and well-received service projects that she helped oversee!

Kudos to Katie and Janna for bringing pizza and water for all to enjoy!

With many thanks and much gratitude,

~ Cynthia Markey

From our Pastor ...

*Once in every life, there comes a time... we walk out all alone, and into the light
The moment won't last but then, we remember it again... when we close our eyes.
Like stars across the sky, we were born to shine... all of us here because we believe.*

From Because we Believe, written by David Foster & Amy Foster

“The world offers you comfort, but you were not made for comfort. You were made for greatness!”

-St. Pope Benedict XVI

Jesus asks the disciples in today's gospel, and he asks us, "Why are you troubled?" We may want to respond, "Don't you see the problems that exist all around us?" After the resurrection, the disciples needed to be reminded that hiding in the upper room only kept them in a place of fear and confusion. Jesus' words are a reminder to disciples of every age, that suffering and hardship did not destroy him, nor will it destroy us. We are challenged to take the words of Jesus to heart, "You are witnesses of these things." Let us not be held back by any fear, doubt, or anxiety, rather, boldly share the good news of the resurrection.

“Les abrió el entendimiento para comprender las Escrituras”.

Un explorador del Amazonas regresó a su pueblo y todos estaban ansiosos por conocer sus aventuras por el río poderoso y por aquel vasto territorio. ¿Cómo, se preguntaba, describirles lo que he visto? ¿Cómo puedo poner en palabras los sentimientos que experimenté al ver las flores exóticas y los sonidos oídos durante las noches? Cómo comunicarles los olores que impregnaban el aire y los peligros encontrados a lo largo del viaje?

Así que les dijo: “Vayan y descubran por ustedes mismos este territorio desconocido”. Les dio un mapa del río indicándoles los peligros y los lugares maravillosos y les ofreció pistas para evitar todo tipo de encuentros peligrosos. Las gentes cogieron el mapa, lo pusieron en un marco y lo colgaron en el ayuntamiento para que todos lo pudieran admirar. Algunos se hicieron copias que estudiaban entusiasmados y, con el tiempo, se consideraron expertos en el Amazonas.

La resurrección de Jesucristo no es un mapa que tenemos que contemplar, ni una lección que tenemos que aprender, es una inmersión en el Amazonas de la vida vivida en y con Cristo. La Palabra de Dios tiene que ser saboreada en el silencio, profundizada en el estudio, asimilada en la oración, celebrada en la liturgia, vivida en la vida fraterna, anunciada en la misión, hasta que se convierta en nuestra lengua materna afirma un teólogo italiano. La Escritura, asignatura pendiente de los católicos, es el Amazonas por el que tenemos que viajar todos los días.

Los apóstoles encerrados en su cenáculo rumian su tristeza y su desilusión. Después de la crucifixión de Jesús discutirían sus opciones futuras. Las enseñanzas de Jesús a lo largo del camino, ignoradas y olvidadas, no habían sido asimiladas por estos alumnos preocupados más por ambiciones materiales y mundanas que por ideas y actuaciones novedosas. Como los alumnos de la ESO tenían sus mentes en otras cosas. En las cosas de la religión todos somos alumnos de la ESO. Todos tenemos nuestras prioridades, preocupaciones y tareas urgentes que vivir. Jesús y su cielo pueden esperar.

La resurrección, realidad ausente en la tradición y en la Biblia Hebrea, les resultaba incomprensible. Jesús tuvo que abrir sus mentes para que comprendieran las Escrituras. Nos podemos preguntar, ¿por qué Jesús no se lo explicó durante su ministerio? ¿Por qué no les abrió las mentes durante su vida? Si lo hizo nunca lo entendieron. Jesús tenía que morir y resucitar para que se les abriera la mente y entendieran su vida entera.

La resurrección es la llave que abra las puertas de las Escrituras. La resurrección es el happy end que da sentido y explica lo que Jesús fue, es y será. La resurrección es la plenitud de la Escritura. Es el link que une lo que somos y seremos. La resurrección es la plenitud de la fe, todo lo demás son los complementos. Aceptar la resurrección de Jesús y la mía es más que un mapa colgado en la pared, más que un sermón de Pascua, es sumergirse en el Amazonas de la vida con Cristo.

La Palabra de Dios que proclamamos, el pan que compartimos, la paz que nos ofrece y la misión que el resucitado nos confía son invitación a descubrir su presencia en este cenáculo que es nuestra iglesia. Es el gran menú del domingo. Nosotros seguiremos proclamando la Escritura y seguiremos alimentando nuestras dudas pero tenemos que creer a pesar de nuestras muchas dudas.

Sherlock Holmes and Dr. Watson went on a camping trip. After a good meal and a bottle of wine, they laid down for the night, and went to sleep. Some hours later, Holmes awoke and nudged his faithful friend. "Watson, look up at the sky and tell me what you see." Watson replied, "I see millions and millions of stars." "What does that tell you?" Watson pondered for a minute. "Astronomically, it tells me that there are millions of galaxies, and potentially billions of planets. Astrologically, I observe that Saturn is in Leo. Horologically, I deduce that the time is approximately a quarter past three. Theologically, I can see that God is all powerful and that we are small and insignificant. Meteorologically, I suspect that we will have a beautiful day tomorrow. What does it tell you?" Holmes was silent for a minute, then spoke. "It tells me that someone has stolen our tent."

AN INVITATION AND A NEED TO PONDER

The celebration of the Sunday Eucharist is the center point of the life of any Catholic community.

Our own Parish Mission Statement highlights the Eucharist as that which nourishes everything in our Parish. Always we are striving to celebrate Sunday Mass as best as possible and to do that, we need lots of help. In addition to maintaining our beautiful worship space, we need people to assist in the various ministries at Mass: greeters, lectors, Eucharistic Ministers, and altar servers. I invite you to ponder whether you can assist us in one of these ministries.

Sometimes when I speak with a parishioner about being a minister – a natural reaction is:

“ME – I could never to that!”

We are inclined to think that serving in ministry is more for someone else and we are not worthy to do that. Well, no one IS worthy! However many are able to lend a hand and with preparation and support, carry out a much needed and important ministry at the Parish.

Please read below and pray, wonder and talk with us – if you feel so called.

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion are adult Catholics in good standing who have a love for the Eucharist and wish to serve their fellow parishioners. Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion are ordinary Christians who model Christian living in faith and conduct in their ministry and in their daily lives. A formal training program for Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion is provided.

Ministers of the Word (Lectors)

Lectors are adult Catholics in good standing who have a love for the Word of God and wish to serve their fellow parishioners as a Minister of the Word. The Liturgy of the Word is an essential component of the Eucharistic Liturgy. The Ministry of Lector is to proclaim the Word of God in the assembly of the people. We offer a formal training program for Lectors and provide them with books that contain all the readings for the church year and may be studied at home.
