SAINT MARY - SAINT CATHERINE

Our Mission is to make active disciples of Jesus Christ by creating a welcoming community rich in spirituality and by moving people to share their God-given talents in the service of others and the care of creation.

We are an intentionally inclusive Roman Catholic parish that welcomes all those who make up our diverse community in a way that reflects God’s love.

Nourished by the Gospel and the real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist, we strive to build a vibrant parish that strengthens our faith and elevates our worship.

SAINT FRANCIS DE SALES

Led by the Holy Spirit, the Parish Family of Saint Francis de Sales seeks to know and celebrate Jesus through Mass, Prayer, Sacrament and Service.

Saint Francis de Sales Church is the oldest consecrated church in New England, the oldest in the city of Boston in continuous service, and the fourth oldest in America, built in 1859, on the top of Bunker Hill. Saint Francis is known affectionately as the Firefighter’s church - The statue of St. Florian, patron saint, is located in the bell yard next to the church.

MASS OF REMEMBRANCE

Sunday, October 27 6 p
St. Mary and
Saturday, November 2nd
4 pm St. Francis

All parishioners are invited to our annual Mass of Remembrance. At this liturgy, the names of all persons for whom a Funeral Mass was celebrated in our Parish during the past year are included in the Litany of Remembrance and a candle is lit for each one.

NEWS FROM OUR CONFIRMATION CLASSES

We had two great sessions on Sunday night with near full attendance in both Confirmation 1 and 2 classes!

Confirmation 2 focused on the meaning of confirmation and why we are confirmed, and included a discussion on What Makes Me Happy? A special acknowledgement goes to Ari and Nick for leading the Confirmation 2 class again this year and for sharing their perspectives on faith formation, happiness, and the power of prayer. In November, we will start to focus on the Saint Reports and begin thinking about confirmation sponsors and Letters of Intent. Please mark your calendars - Confirmation is scheduled for Saturday, May 10th at 11 am with Bishop Cristiano Barbosa and our Pastor, Fr. John Sheridan.

Meanwhile, the Confirmation 1 class continued their review and discussion of the seven sacraments (Part 2) and the meaning behind each of the sacraments with a specific focus on the Sacrament of Confirmation. We are extremely fortunate to have two parishioners, Emily Lydell and Abigail Shewater, join John Volpe to help co-lead the class. In November, we'll have small group interaction with interesting topics for students to discuss together, including the Prayer Process, the Bible, the Holy Spirit and the Church.

The next class for Confirmation 1 and 2 is Sunday, November 3rd at 7pm, immediately following the 6pm mass.

With many thanks,

Cynthia Markey

DID YOU KNOW THAT All Souls Day is November 2nd

All Souls' Day, also called The Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed, is a day of prayer and remembrance for the faithful departed, observed by Christians on November 2nd. Through prayer, intercessions, alms and visits to cemeteries, people commemorate the poor souls in purgatory and give the departed their favorite - indulgences.

According to the sacred tradition of the Catholic Church, from Nov. 1 to Nov. 8, it is possible to gain a plenary indulgence for the benefit of the souls of the departed who are in Purgatory.

All Souls' indulgence

According to the Enchiridion of Indulgences, an indulgence applicable only to the souls in purgatory (commonly called the poor souls) is granted to the faithful who devoutly visit on All Souls' Day a church or chapel and pray the Our Father and the Credo or the Lauds or Vespers of the Office of the Dead and the eternal rest prayer for the dead. The indulgence can be gained from noon of All Saints' Day on, as well as a plenary indulgence, each day from the first to the eighth of November; a partial indulgence is granted on other days of the year.

October 27 ~ Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Bartimaeus, the blind man in today's Gospel, was very persistent. He was determined to meet the one person he believed could do something about his blindness. This was no sentimental wish to see Jesus, rather it was a desperate desire, to which Jesus asked, "What do you want me to do for you?" The question seems unnecessary, and the answer seems obvious. But it really is the right question, not only for Bartimaeus but for us as well. Bartimaeus asked for sight. He trusted and believed that all he had heard about Jesus was true and that only Jesus could heal him. What do you want Jesus to do for you? Ask him. . . Like Bartimaeus, turn to Jesus, express your need, and in trust and gratitude, follow Jesus.

La curación del ciego Bartimeo está narrada por Marcos para urgir a las comunidades cristianas a salir de su ceguera y mediocridad. Solo así seguirán a Jesús por el camino del Evangelio. El relato es de una sorprendente actualidad para la Iglesia de nuestros días. Bartimeo es "un mendigo ciego sentado al borde del camino". En su vida siempre es de noche. Ha oído hablar de Jesús, pero no conoce su rostro. No puede seguirlo. Está junto al camino por el que marcha Jesús, pero está fuera. ¿No es esta nuestra situación?

¿Cristianos ciegos, sentados junto al camino, incapaces de seguir a Jesús?

Entre nosotros es de noche. Desconocemos a Jesús. Nos falta luz para seguir su camino. Ignoramos hacia dónde se encamina la Iglesia. No sabemos siquiera qué futuro queremos para ella. Instalados en una religión que no logra convertirnos en seguidores de Jesús, vivimos junto al Evangelio, pero fuera. ¿Qué podemos hacer?

A pesar de su ceguera, Bartimeo capta que Jesús está pasando cerca de él. No duda un instante. Algo le dice que en Jesús está su salvación: "¡Jesús, Hijo de David, ten compasión de mí!". Este grito repetido con fe va a desencadenar su curación. Hoy se oyen en la Iglesia quejas y lamentos, críticas, protestas y mutuas descalificaciones. No se escucha la oración humilde y confiada del ciego. Se nos ha olvidado que solo Jesús puede salvar a esta Iglesia. No percibimos su presencia cercana. Solo creemos en nosotros. El ciego no ve, pero sabe escuchar la voz de Jesús que le llega a través de sus enviados: "¡Ánimo, levántate, que te llama!". Este es el clima que necesitamos crear en la Iglesia. Animarnos mutuamente a reaccionar. No seguir instalados en una religión convencional. Volver a Jesús que nos está llamando. Este es el primer objetivo pastoral.

El ciego reacciona de forma admirable: suelta el manto que le impide levantarse, da un salto en medio de su oscuridad y se acerca a Jesús. De su corazón solo brota una petición: "Maestro, que recobre la vista". Si sus ojos se abren, todo cambiará. El relato concluye diciendo que el ciego recobró la vista y "le seguía por el camino". Esta es la curación que necesitamos hoy los cristianos. El salto cualitativo que puede cambiar a la Iglesia. Si cambia nuestro modo de mirar a Jesús, si leemos su Evangelio con ojos nuevos, si captamos la originalidad de su mensaje y nos apasionamos con su proyecto de un mundo más humano, la fuerza de Jesús nos arrastrará. Nuestras comunidades conocerán la alegría de vivir siguiéndolo de cerca.

About All Saints Day (from Wikipedia)

All Saints' Day, also known as All Hallows' Day, the Feast of All Saints, the Feast of All Hallows, the Solemnity of All Saints and Hallowmas, is a Christian solemnity celebrated in honor of all the saints of the Church, whether they are known or unknown. The holiday of All Saints' Day falls on 1 November and is followed by All Souls' Day on 2 November.

From the 4th century, feasts commemorating all Christian martyrs were held in various places, on various dates near Easter and Pentecost. In the 9th century, some churches in the British Isles began holding the commemoration of all saints on the 1st of November, and in the 9th century this was extended to the whole Catholic Church by Pope Gregory IV.

The vigil of All Saints' Day (All Hallows' Day), in many countries, such as Ireland, the United Kingdom, the United States and Canada, (Halloween) is celebrated on October 31st. During the 20th century the observance largely became a secular one, although some traditional Christian groups have continued to embrace the Christian origins of Halloween whereas others have rejected such celebrations.

SUNDAY FUNDAY

BIBLE RESEARCH

The first reading and the responsorial psalm this Sunday both refer to people being brought back, rejoicing, after having 'departed in tears.' These people were 'the captives of Zion;' Jews who had been conquered and taken into exile. The prophet Jeremiah lived at that time.

'The Exile' is a famous piece of biblical history. See what you can find out about it. Who conquered the Israelites, and when? Why were the Jews taken into exile, and where was their exile? When were they able to return? What was the importance of Jeremiah?
