WELCOME

*To visitors to our parish, to those who have recently moved into the area, and to those who are comfortable and nourished here—welcome to all!
Please introduce yourself to the priest, and register as a member of our parishes.*

SAINT MARY - SAINT CATHERINE

Our Mission is to make active disciples of Jesus Christ by creating a welcoming community rich in spirituality and by moving people to share their God-given talents in the service of others and the care of creation.

We are an intentionally inclusive Roman Catholic parish that welcomes all those who make up our diverse community in a way that reflects God's love.

Nourished by the Gospel and the real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist, we strive to build a vibrant parish that strengthens our faith and elevates our worship.

SAINT FRANCIS DE SALES

Led by the Holy Spirit, the Parish Family of Saint Francis de Sales seeks to know and celebrate Jesus through Mass, Prayer, Sacrament and Service.

Saint Francis de Sales Church is the oldest consecrated church in New England, the oldest in the city of Boston in continuous service, and the fourth oldest in America, built in 1859, on the top of Bunker Hill. Saint Francis is known affectionately as the Firefighter's church – The statue of St. Florian, patron saint, is located in the bell yard next to the church.

HURRICANES HELENE & MILTON

Dear friends,

As you may know, people across multiple several southern states of the United States are experiencing the impacts of two deadly Hurricanes within two weeks of each other: Helene and Milton. These storms created paths of destruction exceeding hundreds of miles. The death toll for both storms is at 280 people and there are still approximately 100 people reported missing.

In response, Cardinal Seán is asking the parishes of the Archdiocese to once again step forward with a special collection to help our brothers and sisters in need. Catholic Charities USA is providing immediate disaster relief with necessities such as water, hygiene kits, diapers, and blankets among many other items.

The Archdiocese of Boston has a proud history of stepping forward to assist people in need. Whether in response to the floods in Brazil, earthquake in Haiti, Tsunami in Japan, or the relief efforts in response to the fires in Maui, we have provided necessary resources to stem the suffering. Most recently, for the Brazil flood relief efforts, the Archdiocese of Boston raised $245,000.

A collection will be taken up the weekend of Nov. 10th. Parishioners are asked to address their checks to St Francis or St Mary with “Hurricane Helene Relief” in the memo. The parishes will then send what has been collected to the Archdiocese of Boston for distribution to Catholic Charities USA.

Thank you for your prayers and generosity for everyone impacted by Hurricanes Helene and Milton.

God bless,

GRATEFULLY ACKNOWLEDGING THAT GOD GIVES US ALL, WE EACH WILLINGLY OFFER OUR UNIQUE GIFTS TO ONE ANOTHER AND ALL CREATION IN THE SPIRIT OF ESUS CHRIST.

Sanctuary Lamps & Mass Intentions

The red light near the tabernacle is known as the Sanctuary Lamp. A lit Sanctuary Lamp signifies the presence of God in the tabernacle that contains the Eucharist.

You can request the candle be lit in honor of living or deceased family members or friends. The lamp is generally requested in memory of a deceased family member on their birthdays or anniversaries. The lamp is lit 24 hours a day, 7 days a week for one week (Sunday through Saturday).

If you would like to have the candle lit for someone, please call the parish office at 617.242.4664. The cost of the candle is $15.00.

If you are planning a Wedding, or a Baptism, if you are interested in becoming Catholic or have not yet received Confirmation, if you are homebound and would like to receive the Sacraments, interested in the choir, Religious Education, or becoming a volunteer in a ministry...

November 3 ~ Thirty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time

In the first reading we hear Moses speaking to the people about what the law they are to observe and, in the Gospel, Jesus speaks a similar message to a scribe who had approached him. The words were clear then and they are just as clear and relevant for us today! “Love God with all your heart, soul and strength” and “love your neighbor as yourself.” Taking these commandments to heart and living by them is not an easy task, but it is what we are called to do as baptized Christians. To live by these commandments requires daily prayer and the intentionality to live by God’s word. May our prayer bear fruit in our words and actions this week as we strive to fulfill God’s commandments.

Los hombres se han convertido en vallas publicitarias. Las camisetas que nos ponemos lucen todo tipo de productos, dicen las ciudades que hemos visitado, proclaman nuestros actores o futbolistas favoritos y, a veces, hasta predicán ideas. Muchos mensajes me han llamado la atención, pero recuerdo uno que leí en una camiseta este verano en Nueva York: Love All. Ama a todos. Taste Some. Prueba algunos. Harm No One. No haga daño a nadie.

En un monasterio había muchas normas, respetar el gran silencio, no mirar por la ventana, ser puntual a la oración... toda una letanía de minucias necesarias para la santificación de los monjes. La vida religiosa para muchos superiores es más cuestión de mortificación que de santidad, de renuncia que de entrega. Mucho cumplimiento y poco amor. El hombre obediente guarda las normas. El hombre que ama sabe cuando puede incumplir la ley.

Los judíos del tiempo de Jesús gemían bajo el peso de la Torá. Sus 613 mandamientos eran un yugo insoportable. ¿Tienen todos los mandamientos el mismo valor y rango? La escena del evangelio de hoy tiene su lógica. En la vida hay que priorizar, hay que encontrar el mínimo común denominador, hay que distinguir el trigo de la paja y como ésta se ve y abulta más nos quedamos con frecuencia con la paja y despreciamos el trigo. No es de extrañar que el escriba se acerque a Jesús y le pregunte: ¿Qué mandamiento es el primero de todos? Si hubiera preguntado a un fariseo o a un sacerdote seguro que le habrían dado una respuesta muy distinta de la de Jesús.

Ante ciertas preguntas de moral, si usted consulta a diez curas, seguro que le darán diez respuestas distintas. Preguntar a los hombres no nos saca de dudas, hay que preguntar a Jesús. Jesús que conocía la Torá, conocía la Biblia, acudió al libro del Deuteronomio y le respondió: “escucha, Israel, el Señor, nuestro Dios, es el único Señor; amarás al Señor, tu Dios, con todo tu corazón, con toda tu alma, con toda tu mente, con todo tu ser”. Fórmula ritual que los judíos saben de memoria y recitan diariamente, así como los musulmanes repiten su fórmula: “no hay dios sino Alá y Mahoma es su profeta” y los católicos recitamos el Padre Nuestro cada vez que oramos. Y acudió también al libro del Levítico y le recordó el versículo 18 del capítulo 19: “Amarás a tu prójimo como a ti mismo”. Toda la Biblia unida e interpretada, los 613 mandamientos sintetizados en una palabra, AMOR. Palabra vieja y siempre nueva, una realidad fundamental del vivir, amar. Amar a Dios y amar al prójimo.

Respuesta nada original, pero Jesús fue el primero en unir lo que estaba separado, dos realidades distintas pero complementarias. Unidas las dos evitan muchos problemas a la convivencia humana. El fanatismo y el fundamentalismo, fruta que producen las tres grandes religiones monoteístas, se da por vivir estos dos amores desconectadamente. El amor de Dios que experimentamos en nuestra vida nos tiene que llevar a ver al prójimo con los ojos de Dios que ve a todos, sean de la religión que sean, con ojos de amor y de perdón. El amor no es un mandamiento, es una necesidad. La historia de la salvación es la historia del amor de Dios y cada uno de nosotros somos un milagro, el milagro del amor.

Nuestro Dios no es un tirano, no es un legislador de minucias conventuales, no es amante de la obediencia ciega. El amor hace sus elecciones y el creyente elige amar a Dios, amor que no es tan espontáneo y tan sensible como amar a las criaturas, pero que también tiene sus expresiones y manifestaciones sensibles, culturales, y hasta sus éxtasis. Cuando el amor y la ley entran en conflicto, el amor tiene que tener la última palabra. Cuando el amor a Dios y el amor al prójimo entran en aparente conflicto, elige al prójimo y acertarás. Para el que ama no hay mandamientos, hay entrega y dedicación.

Dios y el hombre, dos amores muy distintos pero complementarios, dos caras de la misma moneda, la del amor. Con esta moneda se compra todo, el cielo aquí y el cielo allá, se agrada a Dios y se construye la paz del mundo y se establecen unas relaciones justas entre los seres humanos. Separar lo que Dios ha unido es muy peligroso. Mejor pecar de compromiso social que no de espiritualismo.

NOVEMBER - MONTH OF THE HOLY SOULS

The Church has always taught us to pray for those who have gone into eternity. Even in the Old Testament prayers and alms were offered for the souls of the dead by those who thought "well and religiously concerning the resurrection." It was believed that "they who had fallen asleep with godliness had great grace laid up for them" and that "it is therefore a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead, that they may be loosed from sins."

(2 Machabees 12:46)

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them, may they rest in peace...Amen

Harvest on Vine

While Thanksgiving is certainly a wonderful time to take note of the blessings we have received, it can be a time of stress for many others.

It gives those fortunate enough to do so, the opportunity to offer our support for the good of others.

Every year during Thanksgiving we collect food for our Parish food pantry, Harvest on Vine. This emergency food pantry serves over 300 Charlestown families each month. At Thanksgiving, numbers increase to close to 600.

For a donation of $35, you can help provide a Thanksgiving meal to a family in need.

Harvest on Vine offers a variety of items each distribution. The items greatest in need are:

Rice (1-3 lbs. bags)

Low-sugar cereals

Pasta

Macaroni and Cheese

Thank you for supporting those in need.
