SAINT MARY - SAINT CATHERINE

Our Mission is to make active disciples of Jesus Christ by creating a welcoming community rich in spirituality and by moving people to share their God-given talents in the service of others and the care of creation.

We are an intentionally inclusive Roman Catholic parish that welcomes all those who make up our diverse community in a way that reflects God's love.

Nourished by the Gospel and the real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist, we strive to build a vibrant parish that strengthens our faith and elevates our worship.

SAINT FRANCIS DE SALES

Led by the Holy Spirit, the Parish Family of Saint Francis de Sales seeks to know and celebrate Jesus through Mass, Prayer, Sacrament and Service.

Commemorative Liberty Tree

We are delighted to share that The Bunker Hill Monument Association is commemorating the 250th Anniversary of the Battle of Bunker Hill on June 17th, 2025 as well as the 202nd Anniversary of the Bunker Hill Monument.

To commemorate these historic events we are partnering with BHMA to plant a 250th Anniversary Commemorative "Liberty Tree, as a living tribute to our history and the founding of our country.

We are grateful for our partnership with the Massachusetts Audubon Society who graciously granted BHMA funds to make this important enhancement to Charlestown's tree canopy for these historic remembrances. Funding was provided by the Boston Tree Alliance through the American Rescue Plan Act (ARPA).

Thanks to Boston Tree Preservation who planted the beautiful birch and Diane Valle for her work.

Look up. Look ahead. Grow to the future.

A few words of Thanks

I'm celebrating the 35th year of my priesthood this month and I'm amazed by it all. I've baptized thousands of people (a few times in delivery rooms), heard thousands of confessions (in some very unique places), offered Mass more thousands of times (from Alaska to Montana to Bermuda to Rome to Jerusalem to Ireland to Rome to Istanbul), married hundreds of couples (including two siblings and several of my closest friends), and anointed and buried thousands of people- many blessed by many years and many far too young- and I'm just beginning.

After three and a half decades of doing this, you'd think I've learned some things. I have, but there is so very much more I haven't learned yet. I've discovered at the tender age of 61 that there's only so much I can learn. A comedienne remarks that that she can't learn anything new because she can't un-know useless stuff like the theme to the Brady Bunch TV show. She says that the hard disc that is her brain is full, and she can't empty it. I'm learning every day, but the more I learn, the less I realize I know.

But at this point in the journey, these are most important things I'm learning:

I've learned from my brothers and sisters: I have often remarked that to our parents' joy and frustration, we all will die broke and happy, delighted that we were able to make the lives of those around us better. I'm always taken by their generosity- the gifts they give all year long; in many ways they'll never know. My brother Jim once said that each of us do what we do because we know what we're doing, and because we know we'll do it the right way.

I've learned from my nieces and nephews and their spouses and children to cherish the bonds that connect us and to rejoice that God has made us the incredible family that we are.

I have learned from the courage of close friends in my life who have walked from one change to another, who teach me not to be afraid, to keep going.

I have learned from the faith of staff members- lay, clergy and religious- who walked through the jaws of fear and doubt from scandal to reconfiguration to realignment, focused on Christ and His Church.

I have learned from the strength of women from all walks of life who by their wisdom and candor are true to what Christ is calling us all to do- to respect, to revere, to listen, to share, to be faithful and to be open to God's will, and that God called me, but I said yes.

I have learned from the devotion of the people of God- who surprise and humble me every day with their resilience and fidelity to Christ and His Church- to remember what this is all about, the service of God and His people.

I have learned from the hope and joy of children, wherever I've served, who have shared with me their supreme confidence in the love of God, putting me to shame for my doubts.

I have learned from the love and support of my friends and classmates that God loves me and to never take my eye off the ball.

I have learned from priests, deacons, religious, lay ministers and bishops to keep in mind that it's not our work- it's God's work- we just get to do it.

In these years we've walked through the AIDS Crisis, the abuse crisis, 9/11, Reconfiguration, 4 Popes (2 at the same time and now an American!), the 250th anniversary of the Battle of Bunker Hill, 3 Archbishops, Disciples in Mission, the Coronavirus, 6 Presidents, seemingly endless national crises, 6 Super Bowl wins, 4 World Series wins, 2 NBA rings and a Stanley Cup. I've served 16 parishes and a high school, and at times I've been pastor of one, two and three churches, an administrator, an associate pastor, a vicar forane and a chaplain. And I begin again.

I've always believed that my priesthood is proof of God's joy and His extraordinary love. I am so grateful to so many, and overall, to our great high priest, Jesus Christ, and the Holy Spirit.

All honor and glory be His. Thank you.
Look up. Look ahead. The best is yet to come.

A Trip Home

*From July 3-7, I will be on a family trip to Ireland.
Our good friend Fr. Bill Joy will be here!*

A Father's Day Prayer

*God our father, we give you thanks and praise for all fathers young and old,
especially our own fathers.*

We pray for young fathers, newly embracing their vocation; may they find courage and perseverance to balance work, family and faith in joy and sacrifice.

We pray for fathers around the world whose children are lost or suffering; may they know that the God of compassion walks with them in their sorrow.

We pray for men who are not fathers but still mentor and guide us with fatherly love and advice.

We remember fathers, grandfathers, and great grandfathers who are no longer with us but who live forever in our memory and nourish us with their love.

Amen

COMMUNITY NEWS & INFO

Prayer to the Most Holy Trinity

O Most Holy Trinity,
God of All, we adore
You, who shed light eternal where there is darkness.

We offer You our hearts, our souls, our whole being, today and every day, that we may offer You praise, thanksgiving and love all the days of our lives.

O Father, we thank you wholeheartedly for all the blessings and graces You have so generously given to us, especially the gift of Your Son, Jesus.

O Christ Jesus, feel the beating of our hearts and make them like Your own. Help us to be Your loving and peace-filled presence in our world that all may come to know You and love You.

O Holy Spirit, our guide and inspiration, lead us and keep us on the right path. And if on our way we encounter difficulties and trials, do not allow us to lose hope. Grant us the graces we need daily to share our blessings with all we encounter and to bring about Your vision of love, justice and peace in our world. And when the time comes, O Holy Spirit, lead us to the place that is secure, full of love, joy and peace forever. Amen.

When I consider
your heavens,
the work of your fingers,
the moon and the stars,
which you have set in place,
what is man that you
are mindful of him...

Psalm 8:3-4

June 15 ~ Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

We proclaim the Most Holy Trinity as a mystery of our faith. It is central to our Christian faith and life. The doctrine of the Trinity includes the truth that there are three persons in One God - Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. While we will never fully understand this mystery in our lifetime, the creed we profess at Mass is an invitation to an ever deeper understanding of who God is and desires to be for us. The Sign of the Cross and the doxology or "Glory be ..." are two prayers that are easy to say. Use those prayers this week, and as you do so, ask the Holy Spirit to increase your faith in the Trinity.

15 de junio ~ Solemnidad de la Santísima Trinidad

Proclamamos la Santísima Trinidad como misterio de nuestra fe. Es fundamental para nuestra fe y vida cristiana. La doctrina de la Trinidad incluye la verdad de que hay tres personas en un solo Dios: Padre, Hijo y Espíritu Santo. Si bien nunca entenderemos completamente este misterio en nuestra vida, el credo que profesamos en la Misa es una invitación a una comprensión cada vez más profunda de quién es Dios y desea ser para nosotros. La Señal de la Cruz y la doxología o "Gloria sea..." son dos oraciones que son fáciles de decir. Use esas oraciones esta semana y, al hacerlo, pídale al Espíritu Santo que aumente su fe en la Trinidad.

Jubilee Year 2025: Pilgrims of Hope

How can I be the "sign of hope?"

- When another Christian despairs, remind him/her that our hope is in Jesus, who offers us the opportunity to go to heaven.
- Perform spiritual and corporeal works of mercy.
- Share with others who may not have a relationship with Our Lord the reason for your hope in him (cf. 1 Peter 3:15).
- Pray with Scripture passages about the Kingdom of Heaven to rediscover for yourself why you have hope.
- Matthew 18:10-14
- Matthew 13:24-33
- Matthew 13:4-50
- Luke 16:19-31

Año jubilar 2025: Peregrinos de esperanza

¿Cómo podría yo ser "signo de esperanza"?

- Cuando otro cristiano se desespere, recuérdale que nuestra esperanza está en Jesús, quien nos ofrece la oportunidad de ir al cielo.
- Realiza obras de misericordia espirituales y corporales.
- Comparte con otros que quizá no tengan relación con Nuestro Señor la razón de tu esperanza en Él (cf. 1 Pedro 3, 15).
- Reza con los pasajes de la Escritura sobre el Reino de los Cielos para redescubrir por ti mismo por qué tienes esperanza.
- Mateo 18, 10-14
- Mateo 13, 24-33
- Mateo 13, 4-50
- Lucas 16, 19-31

THE BEDADITUDES: 8 WAYS TO BE AN AWESOME DAD

By Dr. Gregory Popcak

Pope Francis has called Jesus' Beatitudes our "guide on the path of Christian life." Of course, as the Incarnation shows, God leads by example. In addition to being a call to Christian discipleship, the Beatitudes could be said to also reveal something about the ways God the Father relates to us, his children. Seen in this light, the Beatitudes present a unique opportunity for Christian men to become fathers after the Father's own heart.

That's why I wrote The BeDADitudes: 8 Ways to Be an Awesome Dad, which looks at how the eight Beatitudes can be understood to shed light on a uniquely Christian vision of masculinity, in general, and fatherhood, in particular. Want to be an awesome dad? Here's a sample of how the eight Beatitudes can help you be the father God is calling you to be.

1. Blessed Are Dads Who Are Poor in Spirit

Seek to be a father after THE Father's own heart.

Being a dad is on-the-job training. No one has it figured out. Don't pretend YOU do. Go to God every day. Ask him to teach you to be the husband and father HE wants you to be, and the husband and father your wife and children NEED you to be.

2. Blessed Are the Dads Who Mourn

Be not afraid of feelings. Empathize with your family's tears, fears, and struggles.

In Scripture, "mourning" doesn't mean "be sad" so much as it means "cultivate a compassionate heart." It is not your job to fix or feel judged by your wife's or kids' feelings. It is your job to be present to your wife and kids, to understand why they feel as they do, to show that you care, and to help them work through their feelings in godly ways.

3. Blessed Are the Dads Who Are Meek

Meekness isn't weakness. Cultivate the humble strength of a listening heart.

A real leader listens first. The father who is authentically meek is not afraid to hear what his wife and children really need from him and, when necessary, doesn't hesitate to get new skills to meet those needs.

4. Blessed Are the Dads Who Hunger and Thirst for Righteousness

Awesome dads are on a mission from God. Live for Him. Lead your family to Him.

Research shows that when dads take the lead in prayer, faith formation, and character training, kids are exponentially more likely to live the Catholic faith and values as adults. Be the father that leads your family to THE Father.

5. Blessed Are the Dads Who Are Merciful

Be a loving mentor in your home. Don't break hearts. Mold them.

Don't be "The Punisher." Be a mentor and teacher. Treat your children with respect. Don't just yell or impose consequences when they mess up. Instead, teach them how to meet their needs and express themselves in good and godly ways.

6. Blessed Are the Dads Who Are Pure in Heart

Cherish the treasure of your wife and children. Protect their dignity. Affirm their worth.

St. John Paul the Great taught that the opposite of love is use. Love makes people more people-y. Use makes people into things or tools. Of course, it's important to avoid pornography and lustful behavior, both of which are tremendously objectifying, but purity of heart means avoiding all the ways we treat other people as objects. Don't treat your wife or kids as the "things" that exist to make YOUR life easier. Set the standard for loving service in your home.

7. Blessed Are the Dads Who Are Peacemakers

Keep your house in order. Prioritize your family. Protect the heart of your home.

St. Augustine said, "Peace is the tranquility of right order." Be the hands-on dad that makes sure your household is respectful, generous, and orderly.

8. Blessed Are the Dads Who Are Persecuted for the Sake of Righteousness.

The world will try to undermine your effort to be an awesome dad. Be one anyway.

When your friends, family-of-origin, co-workers, or employers try to make you sacrifice what's best for your family for what they want, choose your family and know that God the Father will honor your sacrifice.

Dr. Greg Popcak is the author of many books and the host of More2Life Radio airing weekdays at 10am E on SiriusXM130. For more information on Catholic counseling and other resources, visit www.CatholicCounselors.com.
