WELCOME

*To visitors to our parish, to those who have recently moved into the area, and to those who are comfortable and nourished here—welcome to all!
Please introduce yourself to the priest, and register as a member of our parishes.*

SAINT MARY - SAINT CATHERINE

Our Mission is to make active disciples of Jesus Christ by creating a welcoming community rich in spirituality and by moving people to share their God-given talents in the service of others and the care of creation.

We are an intentionally inclusive Roman Catholic parish that welcomes all those who make up our diverse community in a way that reflects God's love.

Nourished by the Gospel and the real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist, we strive to build a vibrant parish that strengthens our faith and elevates our worship.

SAINT FRANCIS DE SALES

Led by the Holy Spirit, the Parish Family of Saint Francis de Sales seeks to know and celebrate Jesus through Mass, Prayer, Sacrament and Service.

Saint Francis de Sales Church is the oldest consecrated church in New England, the oldest in the city of Boston in continuous service, and the fourth oldest in America, built in 1859, on the top of Bunker Hill. Saint Francis is known affectionately as the Firefighter's church – The statue of St. Florian, patron saint, is located in the bell yard next to the church.

Faith Formation classes

Religious Education, also known as RelEd or Faith Formation, gives students the information and the tools that they need to realize and respond to God's love for them.

Our program at St. Mary-St. Catherine of Siena Parish guides students into a closer relationship with God and our Catholic community by providing them with a solid Catholic education from grades K-10, and preparing them for the Sacraments of Penance, First Holy Communion, and Confirmation.

We want to teach the children of this worshiping community to come to know God, learn to love God, and to live a life in response to God's love!

Parents' participation in all aspects of our program is essential to its purpose and success. Children learn best by example. We ask that you accord your children's religious classes the importance they deserve. By working together, parish and family, our faith will fill the hearts of our children!

Registration begins on Monday, July 14

14th Sunday of Ordinary Time

In 1955, a husband and wife songwriting team attended a youth retreat in California. They put together a song that captured their hopes for a better, more peaceful world. The song quickly spread around the world and has been sung by many famous singers and entertainers. It's been sung in church, at rallies and in bathroom showers all over the country! The song was "Let There Be Peace on Earth, And Let it Begin With Me."

Jesus gives His disciples a mission and directions how to achieve it. They go to all the towns He will visit and prepare the people to hear His message. There is urgency to the work: they are not to carry anything that will delay them, nor should they fuss about what they eat or where they stay. Announce the reign of God and move on. The conversion of each town started with the work and example of the disciples.

We each have our own personal mission, given in baptism and that unfolds over time. Some are called to religious life, others to marriage, some to parenthood, others to social service or teaching or caring for the sick. Whatever our mission, the Lord calls us to it with a sense of urgency and importance. Your good work and example will announce the reign of God is at hand. Let it begin with you!

Choosing Love

by Henri Nouwen

How can someone ever trust in the existence of an unconditional divine love when most, if not all, of what he or she has experienced is the opposite of love - fear, hatred, violence, and abuse?

They are not condemned to be victims! There remains within them, hidden as it may seem, the possibility to choose love. Many people who have suffered the most horrendous rejections and been subject to the most cruel torture are able to choose love. By choosing love they become witnesses not only to enormous human resiliency but also to the divine love that transcends all human loves. Those who choose, even on a small scale, to love in the midst of hatred and fear are the people who offer true hope to our world.

Saint Maria Goretti

1890 - 1902
FEAST DAY — JULY 6

On 6 July 1902, Maria Goretti died in the hospital at Nettuno, brutally stabbed the day before in the village of Le Ferriere, in the Pontine Marshes. Her spiritual life, the strength of her faith, her ability to forgive her murderer have placed her among the best-loved saints of the 20th century. St Maria Goretti was a girl whom God's Spirit endowed with the courage to stay faithful to her Christian vocation even to the point of making the supreme sacrifice of her life. Her tender age, her lack of education and the poverty of the environment in which she lived did not prevent grace from working its miracles in her. Indeed, it was precisely in these conditions that God's special love for the lowly appeared. We are reminded of the words with which Jesus blesses the heavenly Father for revealing himself to children and the simple, rather than to the wise and learned of the world.

— Saint Pope John Paul II, on the centenary of the death of St. Maria Goretti.

July 6 ~ Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

"The harvest is abundant, but the laborers are few; ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest." By virtue of our baptism, we are the ones being sent out as "laborers for his harvest." Imagine the difference it will make if we begin His work right within our own parish! Can you help by being a lector or an extraordinary minister of the Eucharist? Can you help by volunteering with hospitality, with set-up or clean-up after Mass or around the property? Being a "laborer in the Kingdom" starts to happen when we see our church, our parish as our home. What response will we give to Jesus' invitation, "Go on your way. . . I am sending you. . ."? Pray for the grace to be a courageous laborer for his harvest!

6 de julio ~ Decimocuarto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

"La mies es mucha, pero los obreros pocos; Pídele al dueño de la mies que envíe obreros para su mies". En virtud de nuestro bautismo, somos nosotros los que somos enviados como "obrero para su mies". ¡Imagínese la diferencia que hará si comenzamos Su obra dentro de nuestra propia parroquia! ¿Puedes ayudar siendo un lector o un ministro extraordinario de la Eucaristía? ¿Puede ayudar ofreciéndose como voluntario con la hospitalidad, con la instalación o limpieza después de la misa o alrededor de la propiedad? Ser un "obrero en el Reino" comienza a suceder cuando vemos nuestra iglesia, nuestra parroquia como nuestro hogar. ¿Qué respuesta daremos a la invitación de Jesús: "Sigue tu camino... Te envío..."? ¡Ore por la gracia de ser un trabajador valiente para su cosecha!

Jubilee Year 2025: Pilgrims of Hope

I forgot how to go to confession. How do I do that?

The first thing you need to confess your sins is to be truly sorry for them and to want to sin no more. Take time to think about your sins, you can find guides online to help you think about them. Consider what is the root cause of your sin.

Next, set a day and time for going to confession. Either make an appointment, or to be more anonymous, go when the parish or pilgrimage site has confession times. When you are in the confessional, tell the priest the last time you made a confession. If you cannot remember, tell him that. Tell him your sins and express your sorrow for it. The priest may ask questions or offer advice. Then he will give you a penance – remember it. Last, he will pray the absolution over you and tell you to go in peace. Finish by fulfilling your penance. It is often a prayer(s) but sometimes more. Make sure you take time for this.

There is no reason to be afraid of confession; Jesus awaits you.

Preguntas Frecuentes Sobre el Año Jubilar 2025

Olvidé cómo confesarme. ¿Cómo hago eso?

Lo primero que necesitas para confesar tus pecados es sentir verdadero arrepentimiento por ellos y querer no pecar más. Tómame un tiempo para reflexionar sobre tus pecados, puedes encontrar guías en el Internet que te ayuden a pensarlos. Considera cuál es la raíz de tu pecado.

Luego, elige un día y una hora para confesarte. Puedes hacer una cita, o si prefieres mayor anonimato, acude durante los horarios regulares de confesión en tu parroquia o en el lugar de peregrinación. Cuando estés en el confesionario, comienza diciendo al sacerdote cuándo fue la última vez que te confesaste. Si no lo recuerdas, simplemente díselo. Luego, confiesa tus pecados con sinceridad y expresa tu arrepentimiento. El sacerdote puede hacerte algunas preguntas o darte un consejo. Después, te asignará una penitencia – recuerda cumplirla– y pronunciará la oración de absolución sobre ti, devolviéndote la paz del perdón. Cumple tu penitencia con calma y atención. A veces consiste en rezar ciertas oraciones; otras veces puede implicar una acción concreta. Sea lo que sea, tómame el tiempo necesario.

No tengas miedo de la confesión: Jesús te espera con amor y misericordia.

The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few.

Can you find the ten disciples who have forgotten Jesus' instructions about what they should not take with them?

Pope Leo XIV presents Archbishop Richard Henning with the pallium

Archbishop Henning (June 29, 2025):

"Today's Mass for the Feast of Saints Peter and Paul and the blessing and imposition of the Pallium Stole expresses the unity of the Church in the successor of Peter. By the gift of this stole placed within the tomb of Peter, Pope Leo links my ministry in Boston to his own and to the communion of the Catholic Church across the world. He spoke today about the character of that communion, a unity that does not diminish our individual freedom, dignity, or diversity. Communion in the Lord ever makes us more, not less - as individuals and as a community. The imagery of the stole also reminds me to imitate the Good Shepherd in caring for the flock and seeking out the lost sheep. I will return from Rome renewed and determined to live up to that charge in serving the Church of Boston. The Catholics of the Archdiocese of Boston are in my heart and in my prayers."
